

October 25, 1927.

Commander Donald B. Macmillan
W.M.P. Bowdoin Harbor,
Sabrador.

I read your message to a large congregation last Sunday evening. They were glad to hear from you. We have still maintained the tradition of praying for those away from home and think of you often. I have seen Kenneth and visited with Bangs where I saw the pictures from Sabrador which were exceedingly interesting. ~~and~~ hope we may hear from you again. ~~and that you will~~ May you have a comfortable winter. I presume you may have some snow up there now but hope you have a comfortable winter. With kindest regards to Frank

C.C. Macdonald
Dear Mr. Macmillan