Foreword

THE Provincetown Art Association was founded in 1914. For nineteen years it has opened its doors during the two summer months to an ever increasing and interested public. Among its numerous recorded visitors many come from great distances.

Its progress during the past changing years has been indicated by an ever increasing number of new members from the younger group of painters, and the constant interest and support of the older group who have so generously given of their best work from the start. With the continuance of this cooperation, considering the standard achieved by our exhibitions, the future is assuredly one of promise.

In the hope of offering possible encouragement toward younger painters who are coming in increasing numbers to live here the year round, the Art Association is starting a "Student Fund", a memorial to the late director, Harold Haven Brown, who worked for many years on behalf of students of Art. It is hoped this fund may eventually provide a way of meeting a need for further training, or material assistance when necessary. A sale of small prints and cards is conducted for this purpose.

To an interested observer the tendency in the past few exhibitions of paintings is toward a greater diversity not only in subject, but in method of handling and point of view—consequently, there is an impression of individuality that creates intense interest.

We hope our friends old and new will find pleasure in what is shown this year.
