CHARLES W. HAWTHORNE
1872 - 1930

The Provincetown Art Association takes pride in presenting the Third in a series of Memorial Shows of the works of the late Charles W. Hawthorne, one of the pioneer painters in Provincetown and perhaps its most famous artist. Hawthorne is not only represented in most of the country's leading art museums, but through his teaching exerted a tremendous influence on American Art—an influence that is still alive today.

His basic concepts of painting, combined with his strong individual statements, produced works which will continue to be recognized as great art, we believe.
