

JUL • 67 •

This picture is of the house that Myrick C. Atwood lived as I remembered it in the mid 1920's and the last time I saw it in 1967. A storm had blown down one of the trees and damaged the porch.

I am not real sure but I believe that this was the Atwood house that was on Long Point and later was lightered across the harbor to this location.