Over the Road to Provincetown

GO SOUTH down the Old Colony
by the Weymouths and Kingston
to Plymouth,
through the Plymouth woods,
past the old shop where the Sandwich glass was made,
across the Canal,
to old "High Barnstable", the county
town,
along those pleasant streets which
Joe Lincoln loves.
Where every man but one is
"Capt'n, and he is fust mate"
to the west of Highland Light, (you are now going north)
into the stretch of road
with the dunes on one side and the bay on the other
"Way-up-along-the-shore"
to PROVINCETOWN.

PILGRIM MEMORIAL, PROVINCETOWN, MASS.

Inscription Upon the Bronze Tablet on the Face of the Monument, Written by Dr. Charles W. Eliot, President Emeritus of Harvard College.

ON NOVEMBER 21st, 1620, THE MAYFLOWER, CARRYING 102 PASSENGERS — MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN, CAST ANCHOR IN THIS HARBOR 67 DAYS FROM PLYMOUTH, ENGLAND.

THE SAME DAY THE 41 ADULT MALES IN THE COMPANY SOLEMNLY COVENANTED AND COMBINED THEMSELVES TOGETHER "INTO A CIVILL BODY POLITICK."

THIS BODY POLITIC ESTABLISHED AND MAINTAINED ON THE BLEAK AND BARREN EDGE OF A VAST WILDERNESS A STATE WITHOUT A KING OR A NOBLE, A CHURCH WITHOUT A BISHOP OR A PRIEST, A DEMOCRATIC COMMONWEALTH, THE MEMBERS OF WHICH WERE "STRAIGHTLY TIED TO ALL CARE OF EACH OTHER'S GOOD AND OF THE WHOLE BY EVERY ONE."

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY THEY ILLUSTRATED WITH LONG SUFFERING DEVOTION AND SOBER RESOLUTION THE PRINCIPLES OF CIVIL AND RELIGIOUS LIBERTY IN THE PRACTICES OF A GENUINE DEMOCRACY.

THEREFORE THE REMEMBRANCE OF THEM SHALL BE PERPETUAL IN THE GREAT REPUBLIC THAT HAS INHERITED THEIR IDEALS.
