The Commonwealth School of Art and Industry TENTH SEASON

It requires twenty-four pages to describe our Art and Music classes, the living arrangements and the varied attractions of Boothbay Harbor, Maine, and its Art Colony. It is not satisfactory to condense this information or even give an abstract, but our illustrated catalog gives full information. All communications will receive prompt attention.

A. G. RANDALL, Director, 500 Broadway, Providence, R. I.

SUMMER CLASSES IN LANDSCAPE PAINTING at Rockport, Mass. June 29 to Sept. 19

Special attention to color and light. Catalogue sent on request. Address W. LESTER STEVENS, Rockport, Mass.

THE BLUE DOME FRATERNITY

AN OPPORTUNITY for studying the figure in the open air under delightful conditions. Desirable for professional workers and for beginners. Men and women. Professional workers study as they please. Students will have four criticisms weekly from DEWING WOODWARD. This Fraternity includes the DEWING WOODWARD SCHOOL for painting the figure in the open air, at BEARSVILLE-IN-THE-CATSKILLS. Write to L. L. JOHNSON, Shady, Ulster County, New York

WE ARE reproducing elsewhere in these columns this month two oil sketches by pupils of Mr. E. Ambrose Webster's summer school of drawing and painting at Provincetown on Cape Cod, which arrived too late to accompany the announcement of the school in our March issue.
