This cute little fellow has taken over the responsibilities of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-five, and we trust that his burdens will not be so great as the Old Man of Nineteen Hundred and Forty-four. We shall lend a hand to this youngster as he grows up in his efforts to calm down this troubled world, to hasten the time to have back with us our Friends and Neighbors who are carrying the yoke of sacrifice to bring Peace and Happiness again into every American Home.

It is with regret that we record the death of our Friend and Neighbor, NATHANIEL EDWIN LEWIS on Wednesday, December 27th, 1944. A native of Provincetown, he served as Postmaster for nine years, and two terms as Selectman and on the Board of Assessors. } ←

William Taylor for the past several weeks has been hauled out on the ways at the Deaconess Hospital for a general overhaul, and to remove worn parts for replacements. Talking with the nurse on duty there, she informed me that his . . . now I'm stuck—for she used those not-any-kind-of-language-medical terms relative to his anatomy, but I played wise and said, "Oh—
