

-- About 1860 --

The Masonic Block. Built 1870, with the stores of Hezekiah P. Hughes, Dry Goods; and A. Louis Putnam, Watchmaker. Note the old Town Hall beside Universalist Church steeple. Also fish flakes.

The Masonic Block, Universalist Church, Old Town Hall and Central House Joe Manta's wharf, left. Pilgrim Congregation Church, right. The White sign on front of Town Hall commemorates the First landing of the Pilgrims. 1860

... Same scene as above about 1880. Note Lancy house next to Masonic Block now is visible minus the tree. Also the Old Town Hall is no more, and the new Town Hall next to Pilgrim Congregational Church (right) has not yet been built. Joe Manta's Wharf, left.
