

May 26, 1960
 Old Colonial Storage Sold

Sale of the property known as the Colonial Cold Storage at 229-233 Commercial Street, was announced today by M. F. Patrick of M. F. Patrick Associates.

The property was sold by the Associates to M. F. Patrick's brother, Joseph C. Patrick, who has operated a shop known as Treasures in Trash at the location for several seasons. Property consists of 13,480 feet of land and two buildings. The second building is occupied by Mr. Kenneth's hat shop.

Facing West from the Ben Lancy House. - August 1940 - Marcy Garage, left
 Post Office (Cupola) Provincetown Advocate Office (overhang, right)
 Masonic Place, right.

A 6822 Atlantic House, Provincetown, Mass.

- About 1905 -

June 6, 1901
 The new portico erected by A Irving Freeman in front of the Atlantic House receives much commendation for its fine workmanship and is a most attractive feature of this noted hotel.

-- Up Masonic Place --

ATLANTIC HOUSE, PROVINCETOWN, MASS.

- About 1915 -