

127

Cape Cod Cold Storage Wharf from shore. - 1948

Sept. 26, 1918

The Cape Cod Fish Products Co., has been recently granted permission by the Water and Public Land Commission to erect a pier opposite its fish freezing plant at the West End.

-1965-

Scene of the Town from the Cape Cod Cold Storage wharf (formerly the Frank Freeman Pier - see next page) - September 1951
Provincetown Inn, extreme left. Pilgrim Monument, right. Congregational Church & Town Hall spires, Christopher Wren (universalist) and the smokestack of the Colonial Cold Storage. Center Methodist Church, right.
Note gulls on the flats at the right.
Wharf on right, the old Puritan Cold Storage