

1769

Eighty Years Ago

December 24th, 1873

The coasting schooner Rebecca Florence, of this port, Capt. L. Richards, went ashore about daylight Monday morning on Peaked Hill Bar. She went off unharmed at high water. She was from Charleston, S. C., bound to Boston.

