

ATLANTIC HOUSE DINING ROOM
 Above—All you want to eat for $1 in this convivial atmosphere. Shore dinners, lobsters, clams, steaks and chops—catering for outings, conventions and other large groups. Rooms with running water, from $1.00. Ira G. Iris, Proprietor.

Above—Across the storm torn granite blocks of the breakwater is the shortest route to Long Point Light and Wood End coastguard station. Natives use it regularly. Try it, if you're surefooted.

PAIGE BROS. SIGHTSEEING BUSESSES
 Below—These busses await you at the head of the dock to take you around old Provincetown—25c. For other trips call Paige Bros. Garage.

SEA GULL TEA ROOM
 Savory breakfasts, luncheons, and dinners are inexpensive in this dining room overlooking the sea. In the building of the Anchor and Ark Masonic Club, Commercial Street.

SEE PROVINCETOWN HARBOR IN HURLBERT'S SPEED-BOATS
 Above—Seven fast and furious miles around lovely Provincetown harbor—for 50c. Hurlbert's two sleek and powerful speed-boats are waiting for you at Railroad Wharf.

Below—Provincetown has always been a religious community, so it is not surprising that church spires suddenly rise over housetops, gracefully framed in green foliage, sounding a note of guardianship over the clustering town. This one was designed by Sir Christopher Wren, famous 16th century architect, examples of whose work are so highly prized in New England.

BOSTON'S FAMOUS PARKER HOUSE
 Above—When you arrive in Boston, head straight for the City's famous hotel, where good food, superior accommodations and attentive service await you. In the heart of the City's business and shopping sections, adjacent to the theatre district, easily accessible to street car, railroad, bus and steamship terminals. Ideally located for visiting the historic points of Boston and surrounding towns. 600 rooms, each with bath and other modern conveniences, many at $3 per day.

DAY'S COTTAGES ON THE STATE HIGHWAY BETWEEN NORTH TRURO
 Each with screened porch overlooking bay, living room, fire place, 2 bedrooms with room with toilet, lavatory, shower, kitchen, May 25 to Sept. 10: $5 night, $30 week, $100 month.