

006-061

John R. Smith

1680

----- And now we'll leave the road and take a path leading off to the right. This will take us to Oak Head, which is one of the boundary lines between Truro and the Province Lands, as described in a document of the committee appointed to define the boundary line.

- 1714 -

In August 1939, Althea found these three pennies lying on the Oak Head Dunes.

- September 1940 -

Oak Head. Mopsy has found Lloyd, Evelyn and Mother
After a nice rest, now, we'll go back.
Wasn't that a nice walk?