

1951

From Soper St. to Commercial St

Second house on right is the home Sam and Edna Rich.

Down Soper Street from Tremont - 1980
Same as scene on left.

The Advocate, Thursday, August 9, 1979

Samuel T. Rich

Samuel T. Rich, 96, of 6 Soper St., Provincetown, died Thursday at Cape Cod Hospital after a short illness.

Born and educated in Truro, he was employed by Samuel Houston as a chauffeur and pilot. He was a communicant of the United Methodist Church of Provincetown and a member of King High Hirems Lodge, A.F. & A.M. in Provincetown.

He is survived by three cousins, Charles Rodgers of Lafayette, Pa., Mrs. Frances Dodge and Oscar Rodgers of Provincetown. A funeral was held Saturday at the King and Fahey Funeral Home followed by burial in the Provincetown Cemetery.

Right: First Horse-drawn accommodation started by Mr. Frank L. Atkins about 1896.....

Accommodation Wagon, Provincetown, Mass.

On Tremont Street - 1905