

January 1909

It is reported that Capt. Marion Perry has relinquished the mastership of trawling schooner Rose Dorothea and that the noted flyer is to be employed in mackerel seining work the present season with Sol Jacobs in command.

No Place for Dogs

PROVINCETOWN — In 1775, Provincetown voters decided that "For every dog that comes into the meeting house on the Sabbath Day in the time of meeting, the owner shall pay a fine of one-half dollar or kill his dog."

That Was the Law

PROVINCETOWN — In 1880 a town ordinance was passed prohibiting the picking of berries on Sunday and the attendance of dogs in church.

The Lipton Trophy won by the dragger, Rose Dorothea during the fishermen's race in 1907.
