

Remains of the Pickert Canning Factory
before the Hurricane of Sept. 1944.....
ED SMALL WHARF

..... and after the Hurricane of 1944.

Another view before the Hurricane, from the left.
Note seagulls on remains of old wharf; also the U.S. Destroyer in the harbor.
- 1944 -

Spreading Nets at Knowles' Wharf, Provincetown, Mass.

- About 1907 -

George O. Knowles Wharf. David Conwell Wharf on right Behind the big white house on the right was the H.S. Cook and Sons wharf with the Figurehead house in front of it under the big tree. All these wharves are now gone.
