

Abandoned rowboat before end of Point - 1944.
Standpipe and Pilgrim Monument in background

An old Barnstable County Map of 1882. Note Jot Cook's Oil Factory on Point, left.

A wreck on inside of Long Point, facing Town. Note Standpipe and Monument.
- 1944 -

Provincetown—at about the time of Kingman's journal. "Provincetown is all sand with a plank side walk for the main street which is 2 to 3 miles long."

- .. Another old map of the town from the Point - About 1877 Old Town Hall on High Pole Hill, and from left to right the Centenary, Universalist and Center Methodist Church Steeples.