

... "Nigger" the horse which is on duty at the Race Point Station, is a noble and intelligent animal. When storms are sweeping the coast, "Nigger" shows a restlessness that is not dispelled until fair weather again prevails. As the surfmen return from their patrol at night, "Nigger" always gives evidence in some way or another that he is awake and ready for duty. "Nigger" takes kindly to the work of dragging the heavy beach apparatus and surf-boat through the sands, and responds to the call "ship ashore" as lively as the surfmen. "Nigger" is the pet of all the surfmen, and seems to enjoy having visitors call to see him.

... from "The Life Savers of Cape Cod"
by ... J.W. Dalton

The Old Race Point Coast Guard Station
-- About 1900 --

* 1890 *
Quantities of wire was delivered at Race Point Station. Telephone service between beach stations and the town was anticipated. This followed agitation of some time past.

Another of the old ...
Station. Note newly planted beach-grass.

