

The Provincetown Beacon.

LARGEST VOL. 3. PROVINCETOWN, MASS., SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1893. NO. 36. CIRCULATION.

OH! WHAT A SNAP.

Last Week

WE SOLD IN ONE DAY

1000 - POUNDS - MUTTON.

This Week Our Mutton Man writes Us That He Shall Send Us

One Ton of Mutton.

The Above Lot of Mutton

HAS GOT TO BE SOLD AT SOME PRICE, AND IF YOU

WANT ANY GIVE US A CALL.

Remember the place is at

JOHN ADAMS,

Groceries and Provisions, Provincetown, Mass.

June 6, 1901

At Adams' market the amount of each purchase is returned to each customer by checks which can be redeemed for one pound of the very best Java and Mocha coffee, when said checks reach the sum of $10.

June 1901

A modern cash register with all improved attachments was placed in Adam's Market last week.

Feb. 12, 1903

Mr. J. D. Adams received 89 tons of coal Tuesday which was distributed the same day to consumers at $11.50 per ton. Over a dozen teams were engaged in the work