

PROVINCETOWN PAST

FROM: Provincetown Magazine - 1983

View facing East from near the Christian Science Church (left) Bryant's Market on right of the further figure.

This photo, circa 1920s, titled "Snow Plowing on Commercial Street," is from the private collection of Reginald Cabral. It is especially interesting because of the white horse in the second rank of the team. This work horse is believed to be Cy Young's horse Jigger, the one that pulled President Theodore Roosevelt's carriage during the "Laying of the Cornerstone" ceremony at the Pilgrim Monument in 1907.