ARCHITECTURAL DESCRIPTION

see continuation sheet

Describe architectural features. Evaluate the characteristics of this building in terms of other buildings in the community.

149 Commercial St. is a 1-story, 3-bay astylistic commercial building; gable-front roof is sheathed in asphalt shingles, with a full-width shed dormer on the side roof slope; exterior is clad in wood shingles with wood corner boards, and has plywood siding on a portion of the addition; building sits on a concrete block foundation; fenestration includes single-pane fixed display windows, single-pane wood casements, and 1/1 DHS wood windows; primary entrance is accessed by a multi-pane door located in the center bay of the historic core; 1-story shed-roof addition extends from the side façade.

see continuation sheet

Discuss the history of the building. Explain its associations with local (or state) history. Include uses of the building, and the role(s) the owners/occupants played within the community.

Currently called "The Monkey Bar" (2003).
