

"Viaticum Case"

THE manufacturers of the "Viaticum Case," or "Sacramental Set," have provided all the requisites for administering the Sacraments of Communion and Extreme Unction in accordance with the desires of the Catholic Church. It comprises Eleven Articles inclosed in a handsome Cabinet, tastily lined with purple satin. The Cabinet is made from quarter-sawed oak, with an ornamented Cross upon the lid, and eminently fit to occupy a place on the center-table. It represents in every way the highest class of workmanship. It is both ornate and durable. All silver-plated articles furnished are good enamel finish and will not tarnish.

