

CHARLES L. HEINZ, Provincetown painter, finds this view from the top of a Bradford Street hill an interesting subject. A number of important artists are permanent residents of the village and dozens more are attracted here each Summer by the color and warmth of the community by the sea.

Photo by George Yater

“Oyster Shacks, Wellfleet” an oil painting 28 by 34, by Charles L. Heinz, is one of the thirty works of art from the Marx Collection that was presented to the Provincetown Art Association on August 22 by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred V. Marx.