

Nellie F. Putnam's Journal

Commencing Thursday Nov 13th 1878

Thursday Nov 13th 1878

I got up this morning dressed my self and watered my plants then I had my hair combed and came to school we had an examination in History I know I got real low. I went home this noon played on the Piano and then came to school. The house where Linnie Chapman was born is being moved way up here. This morning Julia lost her pencil down the crack of the Depot platform and Willie Brooke crawled under and got it. Our "Club" meet at Ella Brooke's tomorrow evening to have a business meeting and we are going to have them in alphabetical order after that mine comes last. Mamma and Abbie and I are going to act a piece called - The novel-reader. I am the novel-reader I think it will be next week Monday here is a copy of the Tickets -

The novel-reader

Nov 18th 1878

I think I shall go down home after school and recite my part and plan for the stage and curtain and etc if Julia don't come down to practice duetts. This evening I rehearsed my dialogue then I sprawled out on the floor and got my Geography lesson.

Friday Nov 15th 1878

I got up this morning ate some chestnuts and watered my plants then I had my hair combed and came to school. I don't think we shall meet at Ella Brook's to-night because her Mother is sick perhaps they will meet at my house and have a business meeting. I did not fail my Arithmetic this morning. At recess I went out and sat on the fence. This noon I went home ate my dinner then I pealed and ate some chestnuts then I got some of my Gramma lesson and then Ella came and called me and we came to school. After school I came home then I went and chased my mother and we went into Mercy's and saw Teanie after supper all of the club met here and held a business meeting. then we selected a new name for the Club the boy's found out our other one it is C. W. now then after we had the meeting we came down stairs and played Quaker Meeting and Jerusalem then they went home and Grandma and I went down with Ella then I came home and went to bed at home to go to Julia's I am so glad this is the last week of school. My birthday is Thursday.

I am Treasurer of the Club Ella M. is Secretary Ella B. Vice President.

Monday Nov 18th 1878

I got up this morning ate my breakfast and watered my plants then I got ready and came to school it was real rainy so I had to wear my new "Gossamer Waterproof". It rains so hard perhaps we will have one session I hope we will so I can work. I did not go to meeting last evening because the girls did not come to call me so I staid at home and played pieces on the Piano. This is the last week of school I am so glad. We can't have our entertainment till Friday night because we are all some of us engaged all the nights in the week till Friday My seatmate Clara Marston is absent to day so I am all alone I think it is kind of nice. We had one session & Julia and Ella came down with their work then in the evening Abblie and I made some Vinegar Candy and we boiled it just enough to pull it & as soon as Grandma got it in the pan I like a great fool stuck my finger in it to see if it was good and most burnt it off. Then I got my Geography lesson and worked a little while then went to bed.
