The
Bayberry Candle Place

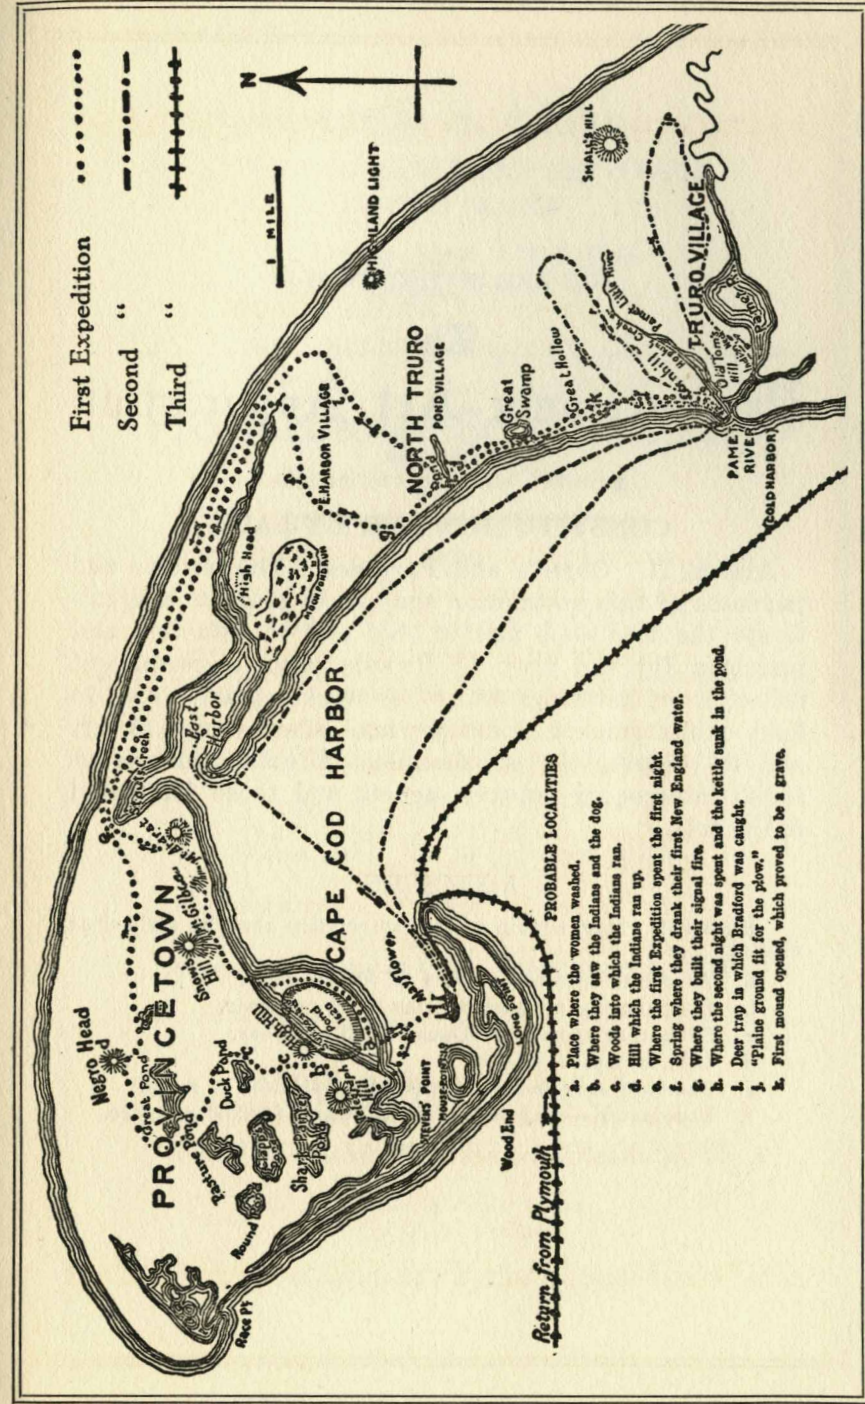

EDWARD C. MORGAN

It stands all weather-worn and gray
Where bay and moorland meet;
Scored by the flying salt sea spray,
By grinding sand and sleet.

Faded its time-worn sign boards are,
Each flying year has traced
Its quick told story with a scar,
The painted words effaced.

Beneath its garb of Quaker gray
Is born the candle gleam
That sheds from mantels far away,
Its flickering, fragrant beam.

Though weather beaten, worn and staid
The World comes to its door,
And finds at each new visit paid
A charm not seen before.

Foreword

THE Provincetown Art Association opens its Twelfth Annual Art Exhibition in its quaint and distinctive setting. To display the art which expresses the atmosphere of this ancient village; the open surge of the sea, calm waters of a twilight bay, wild dunes harrassed by the gales of winter, the fisher folk at their eternal toil by darkness and in gray hours of dawn—this is the aspiration of the Art Association. The ideals of the Association attempt to reflect the setting which has inspired them. Lectures and concerts will lend to literature and music, as well as to painting and sculpture, the appreciation which these kindred arts so amply merit.
