

Very good thing.

PATTERSON CLUB.

LECTURE

BY

Rev. C. E. Fisher

IN

Auditorium of Universalist Church,

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 2, 1899.

7.45 o'clock.

Admission, 15 Cents.

SUBJECT,

HALL CAINE'S

“The Christian”

Rev. Caleb E. Fisher being in town the Club has been so fortunate as to secure his consent to deliver his lecture on Hall Caine's “The Christian.”

Mr. Fisher delivered this lecture in Lowell a month ago and then by special request he repeated it again to a full house. The lecture will deal with the characters and with the dramatization of the story as it has been presented in the city the past season.

Though this lecture is given upon short notice, yet we feel that it is an opportunity too good to be lost, and we expect to see our judgment confirmed by a large attendance of the reading and thinking public of Provincetown.