

1779.

A Lyste

Feb, 14, 1889.

Of Sacred Hymns and tunes, and Likewise Worldlye Songs, certain of w^h were sunge in ye year of our Lord

1779,

And w^h pieces will once more be played and sunge at a

Greate Concerte

To be attended at Y^E Town Hall,

Provincetown, w^h is on ye Highway to Truro, on ye 14th of ye Month of February, in ye yeare of our Lord 1889.

Ye Tickets for ye admission, 25 and 35 cents, at ye door of ye Town Hall.

Y^E doors shall be open at earley candle light, w^h is 6 by ye clock, and ye Concerte will begin at 7 3-4 of ye clock.

Printed at ye Great Pryntinge Office of Neighbour Hopkins, in ye Towne of Provincetown.

Y^E GREATE CONCERTE OF MUSICK.

TIME BEATER,

LEMUEL LAKE BRADDEFORDE.

WIMMEN SINGERS—Prudence Higgins, Wealthy Ann Pettingill, Deliverance Burnham, (she that was a Baxter), Tryphena Wentworth, Charity Standish, Aunt Polly Skinner (whose first husband was a Skillings), Polly Brewster, Comfort Holbrook (spinster), the two Peasley girls, and Susannah Carver (she y^t lives in the north parish).

MENNE SINGERS—Malachi Brewster, Goliah Spurgeon, Squire Winchell (he that writes for y^e papers), Jotham Perriwinkle, Ozias Higginson, Ichabod Crane, and Uncle Billy Hutchinson (who singeth y^e Worldlye Songes and maketh y^e worldly faces).

BASE FIDDLERS—Sergeant Ichabod Winslow (who maketh music on the big fiddle), and Squire Jacob Adams from Eel River Parish.

HARPSICHORDISTS—Mistress Hepsibah Carver (she that was a Dutton), and Charity Bradford (she that was a Bumpus).

FLUTISTS, HORN BLOWER, FIDDLERS—Jazaniah Bumpus, Shebinah Bradford, Increase Phillips, Abiel Sampson and Deacon Ichabod Coffin, & others.

Y^E FIRSTE PARTE.

- | | | | | | | |
|-----|------------------------|---|---|---|---|-----------------|
| 1. | Song of ye Old Folks, | . | . | . | . | All ye Singers. |
| 2. | { Blue Hill, | . | . | . | . | Same. |
| | { New Jerusalem, | . | . | . | . | |
| 3. | Sound ye Loud Timbrel, | One of ye Women Singers and Ye Big Quire. | | | | |
| 4. | A Worldlye Song, | One Man Singer. | | | | |
| 5. | Invitation, | All ye Singers. | | | | |
| 6. | Denmark, | All ye Singers and Players. | | | | |
| 7. | Another Worldlye Song, | One Woman Singer. | | | | |
| 8. | Strike ye Cymbal, | One Woman Singer and Great Quire. | | | | |
| 9. | George ye Third, | One of ye Grandfathers. | | | | |
| 10. | Milford, | Great Quire. | | | | |
| 11. | Sons of Zion, | Same. | | | | |
| 12. | Victory, | Great Quire. | | | | |
| 13. | One on Science, | All ye Singers. | | | | |

Y^E SECONDE PARTE.

- | | | | | | | |
|-----|------------------------|-----------------------------------|---|---|---|--------------|
| 14. | { Ocean, | . | . | . | . | Great Quire. |
| | { Majesty, | . | . | . | . | |
| 15. | Anvil Chorus, | All ye Singers and Instruments. | | | | |
| 16. | Another Worldlye Song, | One Woman Singer. | | | | |
| 17. | Dying Christian, | Ye Great Quire. | | | | |
| 18. | Star Spangled Banner, | One Woman Singer and Great Quire. | | | | |

- | | | |
|-----|-----------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 19. | Anthem for Easter, | Ye Big Quire. |
| 20. | Worldlye Song, | |
| 21. | Jerusalem My Glorious Home, | Great Quire. |
| 22. | Portland. | |
| | Lastly—Blessing, | All ye Singers and Instruments. |

Ye Good Old Song with Spinning Wheel Accompaniment by Grandmam Baldwin.

N. B. 1st.—YE tiding manne, Farmer Heythorn, will put oute alle ye boyes yt do throwe nut-shells or appel kores on ye floore, for thai must showe respect in ye meetin house.

N. B. 2d.—Deacon Benjamin Forebush is requested not to hitch his grey horse to ye chaine at ye corner of ye fence, as ye rattling of sd chaine will disturb ye Time Beater.

N. B. 3d.—Aunt Asenath Buxton will attend to tryimming of ye candles; and Brother Thad. Perkins will wathe ye horses and wagons, lest certain wycked boyes may steal and ryde in um.

N. B. 4th.—If them yt want to come inne, do not have ye silver, ye dore-keepers will take ye greene continental monie.

N. B. 5th.—Ye menne folks will carry ye lanthornes and umbrels on ye arme and put ye hats in ye pockets, lest ye same should be filched.