

Keeper and Surfmen of the Peaked Hill Bar Life-Saving Station; Men Who Bore the Brunt of the Cape's Winter Wreck Toil.

Sitting: Keeper Cook

Standing - left to right: Surfmen Gilvey, Carlos, Fish, Bowley and Kelly

Photo.
—
PROVINCETOWN.

W. M. Smith,

Peaked Hill Bar Life Saving Station Cart & Team which was used to bring supplies and passengers to and from Peaked Hill Bar and Provincetown

ISAAC G. FISHER

Keeper at the old Peaked Hill
Life-saving Station, and hero of many thrilling rescues on the shores of Cape Cod.

Highland Light

Baiting Trawl

Capt. Benjamin A. Higgins

Benjamin A. Higgins
Veteran Whaling Master and Gold-Hunter

from: John N. Smith, Provincetown, Mass.

CAPTAIN JOHN A. COOK
Whaling Skipper

From: John N. Swift, Provincetown, Mass.

"FIRST LADY" OF THE FAR NORTH

Viola Cook, wife of a Provincetown skipper whaling in the Arctic, lived three years at Baillie Island, north of Alaska. The nights there last 58 days. Temperature 57 degrees below zero.

Mrs. Lizzie B. Foster

CAPTAIN JOSEPH S. SILVA
of fishing schooner
I. J. Merritt, one of the high-liners of the old banks fleet.

From: John N. Swift, Provincetown, Mass.

Baiting Trawls near Railroad Wharf

From: John N. Swift, Provincetown, Mass.

The Record
Provincetown, Mass.

Keeper William Wallace Cook
Peaked Hill Bar Station
Retired November 3, 1915

From: John N. Swift, Provincetown, Mass.

POST CARD

A PLACE
A PLACE
A PLACE
A PLACE
A PLACE

CORRESPONDENCE HERE

NAME AND ADDRESS HERE

*Capt Fred D West
Supt Bowers Section Co
Miami Fla*

The "Sunbeam's" Artist

Clifford Ashley on St. Nickolas Mountain

F. B. Rose
Photographer

CAPTAIN BENJAMIN A. HIGGINS

SEVENTY POUNDS OF CODFISH, ALL IN A PIECE

By Rosamund
Provincetown, Mass.

Mikeli Inotta - Sebastiano Sabati - Angelo Cassisa - Maggiore Fortunato.

Bragas Menolia - Azzaro Francisco - Ramello Stefano.

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1863, by T. R. BURNHAM, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

HON. SCHUYLER COLFAX.

Speaker of the House of Representatives of XXth Congress

L. M. SNOW, PHOTO., PROVINCETOWN, MASS.

Charles P. Kelley
Keeper of High Head L.S. Station

From: John N. Swift, Provincetown, Mass.

Keeper and Surfmen of Race Point Life Saving Station

Men Who Fired the First Shot On the Morning of the Three-Barge Disaster

left to right: Keeper Fisher, Surfmen Lewis, McInnis, Brown, Mayo and Burch

From: John N. Swift, Provincetown, Mass.

One section of Provincetown shore, where the 1300-foot long Matheson Wharf has been shortened to 400 feet by the two month long invading ice flow

From: John N. Swift, Provincetown, Mass.

Old Daisy - Peaked Hill Bar Horse

Wood End Light

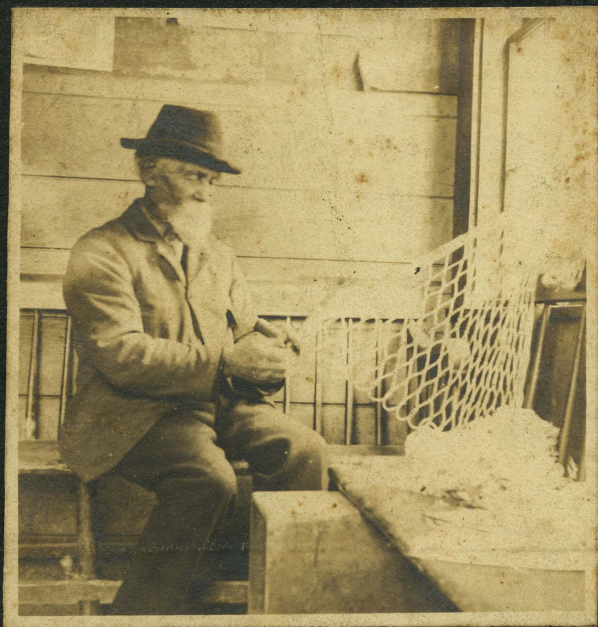

Keeper Sparrow's Old Quarters

OLD WOOD END LIFE SAVING STATION

THE ONE-ARMED WHALEMAN

Fred West, mate of a Provincetown vessel whaling in the Arctic, suffered infection of his arm and had to have it sawed off. Had no anaesthetic. He took the matter lightly, held a funeral for his arm and buried it in a violin case. Then went on a-whaling.

CAPTAIN JOHN J. COOK

From: John N. Swift, Provincetown, Mass.

LUCKY DOG

Leo, Mascot of the old Provincetown banks fishing schooner, I. J. Merritt.
In her first voyage to the Grand Banks the Merritt paid for herself, and for many years she was a "high-liner" of the old fleet.

Wrecked Schooner "Elwood Burton"

From: John N. Swift, Provincetown, Mass.

Captain Charles A. Foster

THEY DIDN'T COME B

SCORES OF PROVINCETOWN FISHERMEN HAVE
The day after this picture was taken, the little capsized in a gale, drowning both men in her crew.

A.
ft

Inscription on back: Fishing Launch "Agnes Perry" and crew (Pereira nearest stern).
This picture was taken on day before the craft capsized, drowning the owners.

From: John N. Swift, Provincetown, Mass.

