Cast

MARISSA AFTON is planning a trip to Paris in the Fall for a course on French accents. She is available to pose for portraits:

THOMAS ELLIOTT Though this will be his only performance this Summer, Tom is involved "behind the scenes" in other productions. Returning to Wheaton College in the Fall where he will complete his BA in Dramatic Literature and Theater, Tom hopes one day to uses his training to help fight the war against drugs by performing people's hallucinations for them.

GARY FRENKEL has been a regular on ABC's thirtysomething for the past 4 years as the sleazy Yuppie environmentalist Kip Boredom. Now that the series has been cancelled he has returned to his roots in summer theater.

KATHRYN GRADY was born to play a French maid, and is even smarter than the scholar she plays in the show. It is also true that she can tell the future.

DANIEL GETZOFF is proud to be making his second SCHWA appearance. He plans to change the universe beginning this Fall.

DAWN LOREY is in close contact with the spirit of Moliere.

MARTIN NAVIS will receive his BA in Theatre on graduating from Wheaton College this Spring. He then plans to study acting extensively in a Conservatory.

GERYLL ROBINSON lives in a tent.

CORRIE ZOLL is from Maple Grove, Minnesota. He goes to school in Grinnell, Iowa and this is his first trip to the East Coast. Be nice to him.
