Because of her assistance,
our activities were successful

During this time his advice and guidance has been invaluable.

and continued assistance,
we made our Junior Prom
a memorable event
never to be forgotten.

His presence was also counted upon at such affairs
as week-end dances and the Freshman Reception.

We know of no one more worthy of this honor than Miss Medeiros and Mr. Seeley, so with grateful appreciation and a thank you for all they have done for the class of 1969, we dedicate this edition of the Long Pointer to them.

An Individually Planned Curriculum

Curriculum

The curriculum at Provincetown High School has been organized in a manner which permits every student to receive the best possible education based on his abilities, aptitudes, and post-high school plans.

Although students' schedules are prepared in accordance with specific course requirements, individual differences are given careful consideration and students are usually able to take those subjects which serve a definite purpose in their total school planning.

Members of the student body may pursue the College Classical Course, College Technical Course, Commercial Course, General Course, Household Arts Course, or Industrial Arts Course. However, by the time he reaches his Junior or Senior year, a student may elect major subjects which are not necessarily within his regular course division, if they serve a definite educational purpose.

In addition to taking the required English, Social Studies, Science, Mathematics and Physical Education courses necessary for graduation for all students, those students in the College Courses may take Solid Geometry, Trigonometry and Calculus, Physics, Creative Writing, Marine Biology, Technical Drawing, French and Latin. Commercial Course students have intensive training in a comprehensive sequence of Stenography, Typewriting, Bookkeeping, and Office Machine Operation, which equips them to hold an office position after graduation from high school. General Course students are allowed to select from a wide variety of electives, depending upon their interests and abilities. Industrial Arts Course students are required to take a sequence of including Technical Drawing, Woodworking, Metals, Electricity and Electronics. This course prepares boys for technical schools or for apprenticeships in technical or building fields, following high school. The Household Arts Course gives our girls valuable training in cooking, sewing and household management, in addition to wide choice of electives and basic academic subjects.

This year, three new partial unit subjects have been added to our curriculum. These are, Current Events in Grade 9, Family Living in Grade 10, and Health in grades 7 and 8. These are required subjects. Our high school students continue to elect Art, Band, and Chorus according to their interests and talents.

Judging from the list of colleges and schools which our graduates attend, it appears that our high school curriculum is fulfilling the demands of modern education in today's society.

Editorial

During his four years of high school, a student is conscious of the sheltered life he leads; but he is also aware of the social, economic, and political problems that exist in the world today. Even though he seems to be occupied primarily with proms, parties, cokes at Adams', dances, and sports, he is far from ignorant of the racial problems, political and religious dissensions, or the war in Vietnam.

That a freshman is cognizant of the various problems in the world is somewhat difficult to believe. He is only fourteen, thrilled with his long hair and mod clothes. The girls who were once "brats" are now something to be admired. He can play sports, and makes friends quickly. To say that he doesn't know what is occurring outside his comparatively small world is a gross injustice. He remembers the day when his brother joined the Air Force — his mother's tears, and his father's struggle to retain his composure — this was his initiation into life's complexities.

He becomes a sophomore. His parents relax some of their restrictions, and he becomes interested in cars and how they work. He becomes serious about his studies. He is very tall and lanky and is now one of the well-known school athletes. His year passes smoothly. It is his history and government classes that give him a better insight and understanding of America as it is today.

He has his sixteenth birthday. He is a junior. This year will bring all the things he has been looking forward to. Preparations for the Junior Prom are prominent. His sports record is well known. Yet, he can't get his driver's license as soon as he had expected, because today, teenagers are not trusted. Teenagers supposedly cause all the riots and demonstrations that he reads about in the newspaper. More and more, he realizes the tremendous problems that will confront him. He learns that life isn't all dances, sports, and driving a car, especially when he reads the telegram that informs his family that his brother, who has been wounded fighting in Vietnam, is coming home.

Senior year. He is sure that he will be happy to graduate, but everyone knows that he someday will have nostalgic feelings about his high school days. But now his problems increase — should he go to college, join one of the branches of military service, or look for a job? What course should he take to prepare himself for life? He's eighteen — time to sign up for the draft.

They think that he is just an average high school student who "doesn't realize the problems of today and tomorrow." Contrary to belief, he does realize—all too well. His high school training has molded his character. He has matured from a young freshman boy into a man. He has confidence in himself and in his ability to make the right decisions.

Seniors

Four Years See Our Aspirations

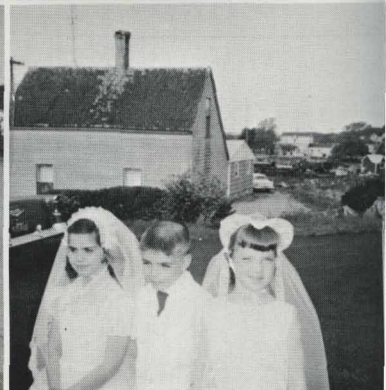

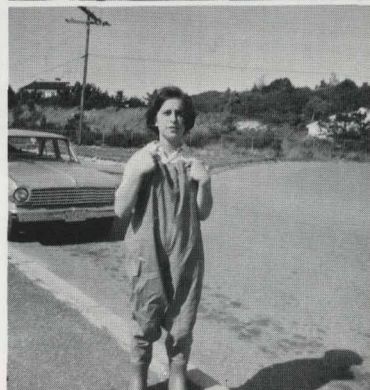

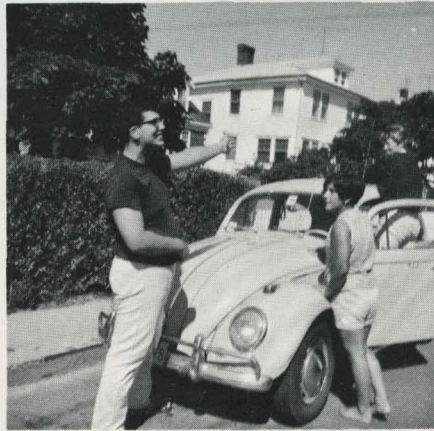

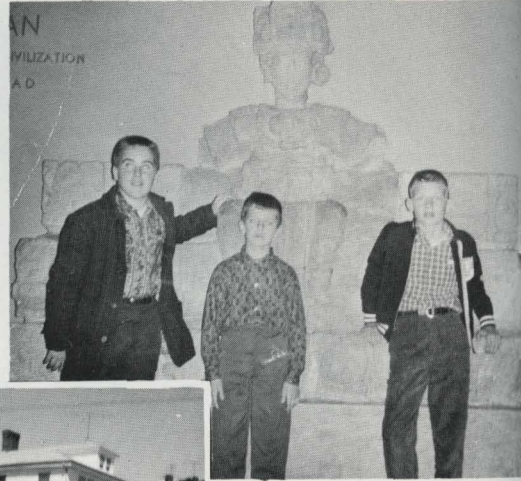

Senior Class History

1965-1966—Freshmen. Looking back to our freshman year, we chose, as the leaders of our class, Peter Taves, President; Michael Andrews, Vice-president; Eileen Davis, Secretary; and Carol Ward, Treasurer. Deborah Andrews and Edmund Reis were our Student Council Representatives and Mr. Thomas Deffley was our class advisor.

Scholastically, we strived to achieve our goals; socially, we were indoctrinated into the high school at our Freshman Reception, which was superbly sponsored by the seniors and had the theme of "Babes in Toyland".

1966-1967—Sophomores. As sophomores, we elected Edmund Reis, President; Peter Taves, Vice-president; Deborah Andrews, Secretary; Carol Ward, Treasurer; and Kathleen Kacergis and Anthony Thomas, Student Council Representatives. Mr. Christopher Clarke was our class advisor.

We worked hard, shared new experiences, and stayed together.

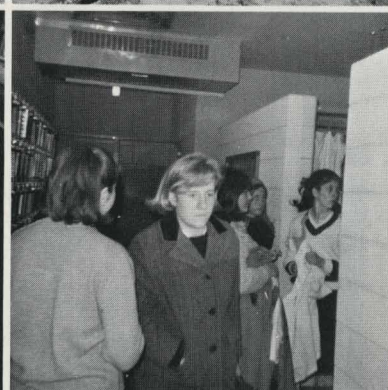

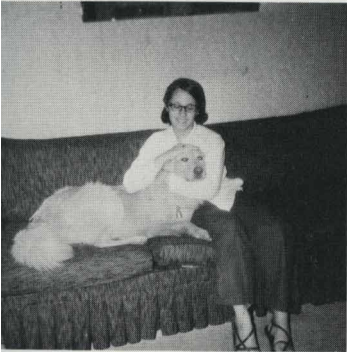

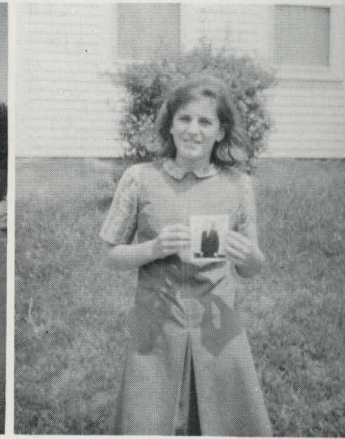

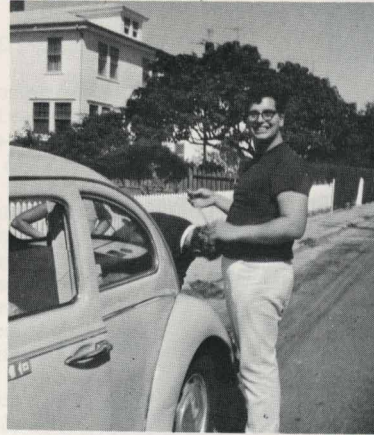

and Hopes Fulfilled

1967-1968—Juniors. Our junior year brought with it many class projects. We sold refreshments at the football games and tried our hand at sponsoring various student activities—especially a very decorative and successful Junior Prom with the theme of “Oriental Gardens”.

With the exception of John Medeiros, as one of our Student Council Representatives, we kept our faith and trust in the same officers, for we again elected Edmund Reis, President; Peter Taves, Vice-president; Deborah Andrews, Secretary; Carol Ward, Treasurer; and Kathleen Kacergis, Student Council Representative. Mr. Paul Seeley took over as class advisor, as Mr. Clarke left us.

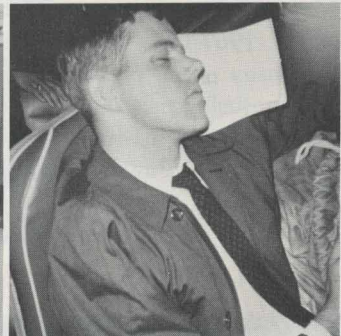

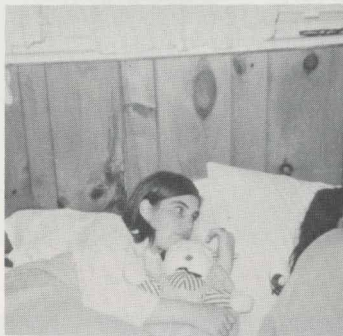

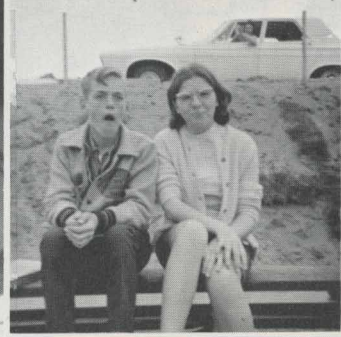

Senior Class History

1968-1969—Seniors. Well, we made it—we're seniors at last!!

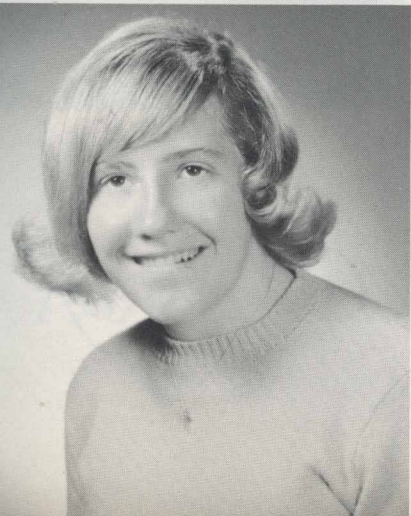

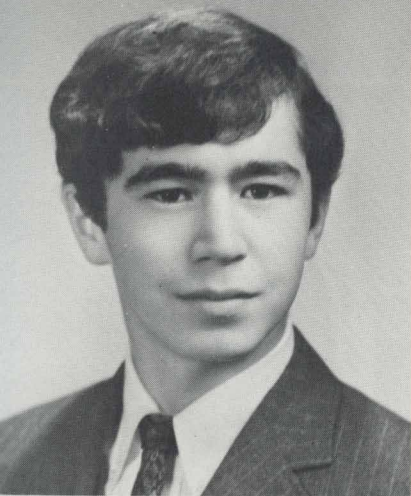

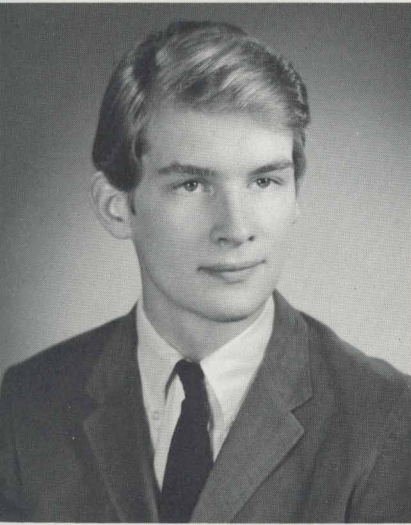

We again elected Edmund Reis, President; Peter Taves, Vice-president; Deborah Andrews, Secretary; Carol Ward, Treasurer; and Kathleen Kacergis and John Medeiros, Student Council Representatives. Mr. Paul Seeley again filled the role as class advisor.

Once upon a time—approximately four years ago to be more exact—we ventured through the doors of P. H. S. destined to receive a high school education. At that time, this was only an idea or aspiration; now, it is a reality.

Baseball '68

The record of the Provincetown High School baseball team this year was six wins and nine losses. Everyone showed determination and team spirit although the record doesn't seem to indicate that it was a particularly successful season.

After weeks of daily exercising, the team was physically capable of winning, but because of the lack of batting and fielding practice, the team suffered. The spring was cold and did not allow many opportunities for practicing.

The leading batter on the team was Anthony Jackett, who batted a strong .341. Towards the end of the season, the team's batting improved, which would indicate a fine season in the coming year. Team spirit is at its peak, and the coaching staff is ready to help the team have a winning season. With the loss of only two seniors from the team, we hope to have a very successful year.

UNDERCLASSMEN

The Junior Class

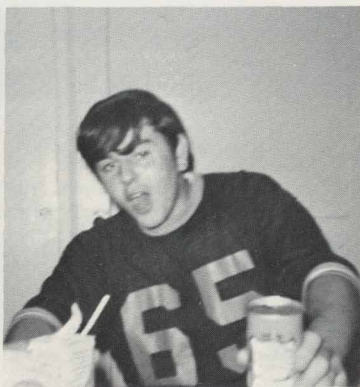

THE JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Although we began to prepare for our future in our freshman year, our goals were vague. With each succeeding year, these goals have taken definite patterns.

To guide us through our freshman year, we elected for President, Brock Papetsas; Vice-president, Peter Cordeiro; Secretary, Audrey McKay; Treasurer, Roberta Oliver; and Wayne Medeiros and Elaine Roderick, Student Council Representatives. Our advisor was Mr. Paul Seeley. The Freshman Reception, sponsored by the senior class, was the highlight of our first year. A drab gym was converted into a dreamland of music and fun.

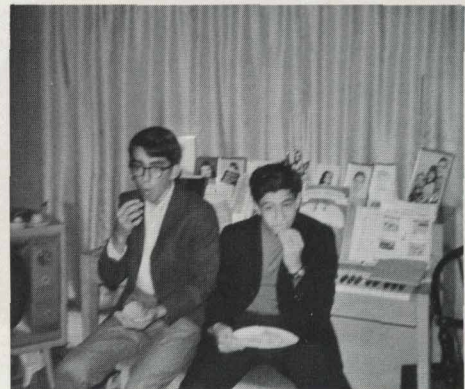

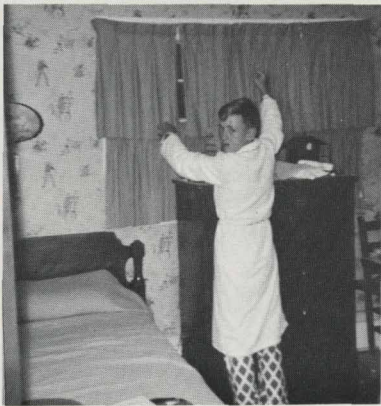

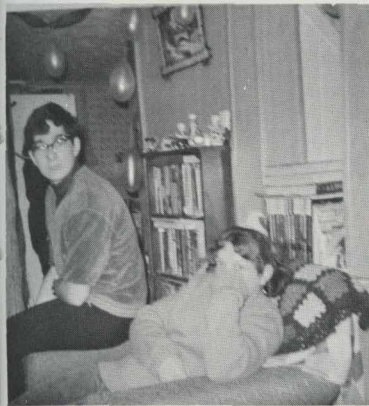

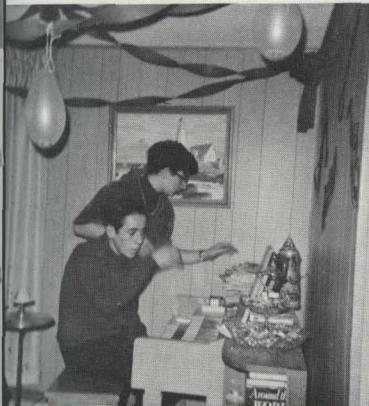

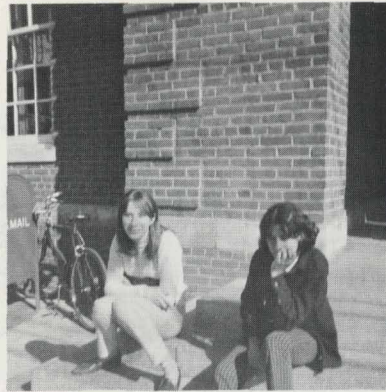

Our sophomore year elections found Brock Papetsas, President; David Dutra, Vice-president; Audrey McKay, Secretary; Roberta Oliver, Treasurer; and Peter Cordeiro and Elaine Roderick, Student Council Representatives. Mr. Thomas Kane became our class advisor.

This year we have elected Brock Papetsas, President; David Dutra, Vice-president; Roberta Oliver, Secretary-treasurer, and Sandra Rivers and William Perry, Student Council Representatives. Mr. Elmer Silva and Mr. Ernest Carreiro are class advisors.

From a social viewpoint, the Junior Prom and the other class activities have been and are being planned. Scholastically, the students who are taking the college course are working toward admission to the college of their choice. Many taking the commercial course will apply to business and secretarial schools. Others will serve our country by going into one of the armed services; some will seek jobs; still others will marry. No matter what course has been pursued, each of us is searching for happiness in life. The entire junior class now realizes that the freshman goals are no longer thoughts of the future, but the realities of today.

Claudia Martin '70

The Sophomore Class

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

As we enter our second year of high school, thoughts of the future should be our main concern; thoughts of the past, merely reflections.

To guide us through our first year, we elected the following: Frank Reis, President; Donna Joseph, Vice-president; Deborah Santos, Secretary; Marcia Enos, Treasurer; and James MacFarlane and Thomas Jackett, Student Council representatives. For class advisor, we elected Mr. Michael Kacergis.

The senior class sponsored the Freshman Reception during which event we were welcomed into the high school. With "Once Upon a Time" as a theme, our first social event proved to be a memorable one.

This year for officers we elected Frank Reis, President; Donna Joseph, Vice-president Deborah Santos, Secretary; Marcia Enos, Treasurer; and Cynthia DeSilva and Thomas Jackett, Student Council representatives. Mr. Paul Boire accepted the position as our class advisor.

Motivated by a strong class spirit and an eagerness to learn, we are preparing to cope with the problems of society so that we may help to make this a peaceful and more harmonious world.

The Freshman Class

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

On September 3, 1968, the U. S. S. Freshman Class sailed into the Provincetown High School harbor. An anxious crew of freshmen cast their nets of knowledge and began their first year of high school.

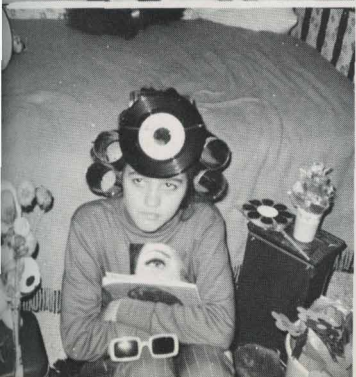

In order to steer our ship in the right direction, we elected our ship's officers: Mark Silva, President; Ida Souza, Vice-president; Joan Santos, Secretary; Colleen Stevens, Treasurer; Zana Roderick and Kirby Bevans, Student Council Representatives. We are happy to have Miss Gloria Taves as our class advisor.

To start off our first cruise, the seniors sponsored our Freshman Reception. It was held in the gymnasium and the decks were decorated beautifully with crepe paper, gaily colored balloons, and all different kinds of stuffed animals. To add to the frivolity of our initial voyage, the seniors had thoughtfully pinned baby bottles and tiny lollipops on each Freshman. Our captain, Mark Silva, took his maiden cruise in a baby carriage to get the feel of commanding our ship. Thus, we became part of the high school fleet.

Now that you have met our crew, don't you think we sail a good ship? All aboard and happy sailing!

Industrial Arts

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Although industrial arts has always been offered to the students of Provincetown High School, the department was expanded this year into a vocational course. Under the direction of Mr. Ernest Carreiro and Mr. Jackson Hibbert, the students are being taught the essentials of working not only with wood, but also with metal.

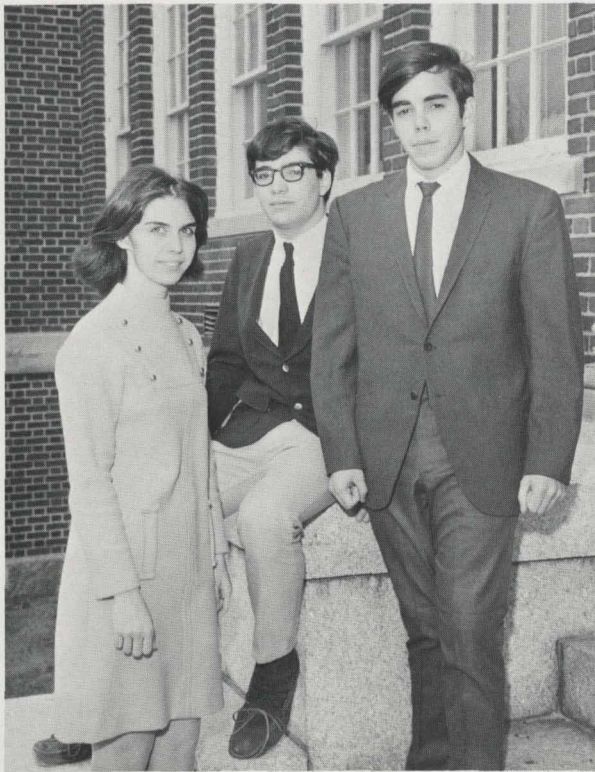

Because of the achievements of the students who were enrolled in this course during the 1967-1968 school year, an exhibition of hand crafts was held. Visitors saw a variety of carefully made projects such as hope chests, book cases, coffee tables, candle holders, book racks, gun racks, and many other practical and beautifully finished decorative pieces for the home.

We hope to continue to see more exhibitions of projects which represent the fine work of the students enrolled in this course.

Town Hall Transformed Into

JUNIOR PROM

The hard work and effort that the Class of 1969 exerted in planning their Prom and creating the decorations for it was well rewarded on May 17, 1968.

Using a most original theme, "Oriental Gardens", the juniors transformed the drab interior of the Town Hall into a colorful realm of nature's brightest hues. Ming trees, walls of flowers, bamboo houses, bridges, and fountains fulfilled the juniors' dream of creating a background of beauty.

With music furnished by Art Perry and his orchestra, the Grand March, led by Class President Edmund Reis and Secretary Deborah Andrews, began. After executing a flawless march, members of the class danced while the judges retired to elect the royalty of the evening.

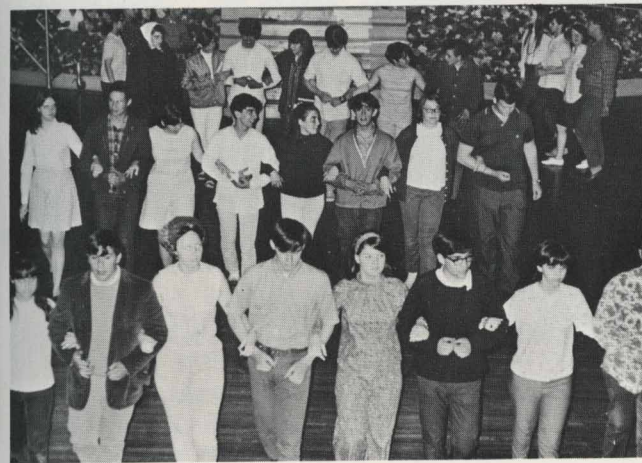

Soon after, it was announced that Bonnie Oppen and Stephen Silva had been chosen as the Queen and King. Deborah Andrews, Sandra Cook, Eileen Davis, Beverly Days, Kathleen Kacergis, and Bianca Ferreira were selected as members of the Queen's Court.

It is with satisfaction and pride that we can look back to this night as one of the most cherished memories of our days in P. H. S.

Bonnie Oppen '69

An "Oriental Gardens" for Junior Prom

Freshman Reception

A loud noise could be heard all over P. H. S. when the seniors and freshmen opened the huge net holding a colorful array of various sized balloons. On October 10 the Freshman Reception, sponsored by the senior class, was held to initiate the freshmen into the high school.

"World of Fantasy" was chosen as the theme and the gym was transformed into a land of teddy bears and colorful streamers.

Mark Silva, freshman class president, led the march riding in a baby carriage that had been decorated with dainty ruffles. The freshmen were somewhat embarrassed when they learned, a few moments before the march, that they would have to wear bonnets. However, they were relieved to learn in the middle of the march that they could remove their bonnets and thereafter be regarded officially as the freshman class of P. H. S.

Dancing until eleven o'clock, the serving of refreshments, and the fun of initiating the freshmen into the high school made the Freshman Reception of 1968 a memorable one.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is functioning as a unit and is gaining a foothold in student government at Provincetown High School. The 1968-1969 year of the Provincetown Student Council has proved to be a most successful and determined one. First of all, we elected our officers: John Medeiros, President; Kathleen Kacergis, Vice-president; Cynthia DeSilva, Secretary-Treasurer; and Amy Jackett, Historian. We also elected Mr. John Bragdon, a very capable and helpful teacher, as our advisor.

Our group has been actively involved in sponsoring many activities. The Student Council's purpose is not to make money, but we must charge admission fees to enable us to sponsor more and varied activities. So far, we have sponsored pool parties at the Provincetown Inn on Sundays, a dance at the Veterans Memorial School, a gift of Christmas fruit baskets to the Cape End Manor, and we are now planning several other activities.

Knowing what we have done, and what we are going to do in the future, it seems to us that it is going to be a very enjoyable and successful year for the Student Council of Provincetown High School.

THE PROVINCETOWN MARCHING AND CONCERT BAND

This year has been a very successful one for the Provincetown High School Band. Under the direction of Mr. Roger Dias, the band has shown definite progress. For the first time in the history of P.H.S., we have had a marching unit on the football field.

This year the band presented its annual concerts at the Truro Grammar School and at the Veterans Memorial School. Many of the young students are enthusiastic about becoming band members when they reach P.H.S.

Through hard work and dedication to our instruments and to our school, we look forward to a promising future for the Provincetown High School Band. Lastly, we know that Mr. Dias' instruction and guidance will help us achieve our goal.

Lawrence Silva '69

GLEE CLUB

This year Mrs. Elizabeth Kelly assumed charge of our Glee Club, and so far the sounds coming from our auditorium are strong and refreshing. Instead of waiting until the beginning of the fourth term, the senior class has already begun working with the chorus.

We started off the year by singing folk music such as "Skip to My Lou," and will progress to the more complicated Christmas and Spring Festival selections.

Mrs. Kelly is putting her effort into forming a superior high school choral group, and with the cooperation of the students, her goal will be achieved.

With all of the additional practices, there is only one answer to the question, "What is graduation going to sound like under Mrs. Kelly's supervision?" — THE BEST EVER, of course.

Future Teachers of America

Under the guidance of Mrs. Anita Berman, the Future Teachers of America have proved to be a progressive group. Through the use of vivid imaginations and through hard work, the F.T.A. has widened its range of activity.

Early in September we elected the following: Peter Taves, President; John Medeiros, Vice-president; Ann Encarnation, Treasurer; Kathleen Kacergis, Historian; Cynthia Souza, Secretary; and Clement Silva, Parliamentarian.

A number of speakers have attended our meetings and lectured to us concerning the advantages and disadvantages of teaching as a career. Through these sessions, we became more familiar with a teacher's responsibility to the school and community.

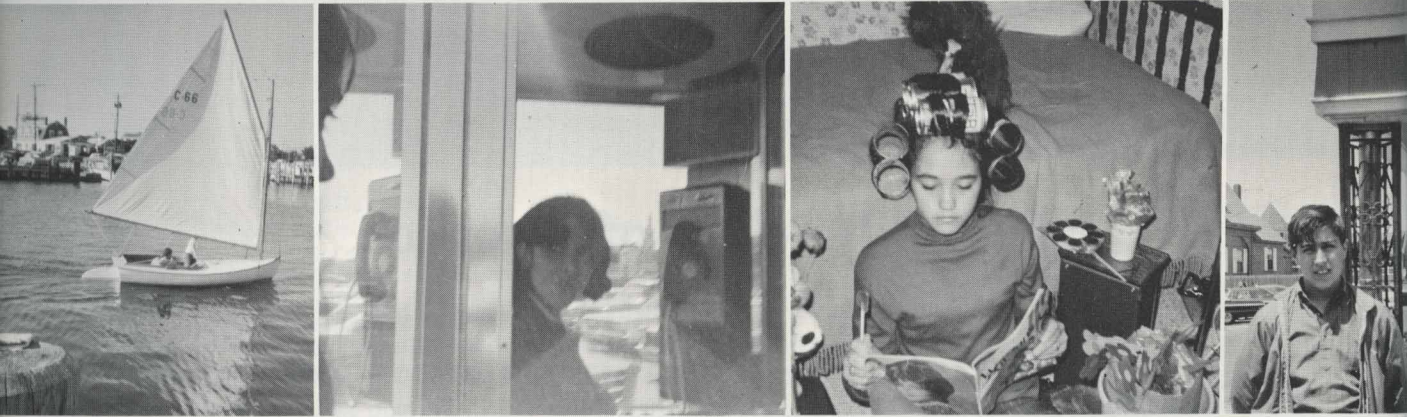

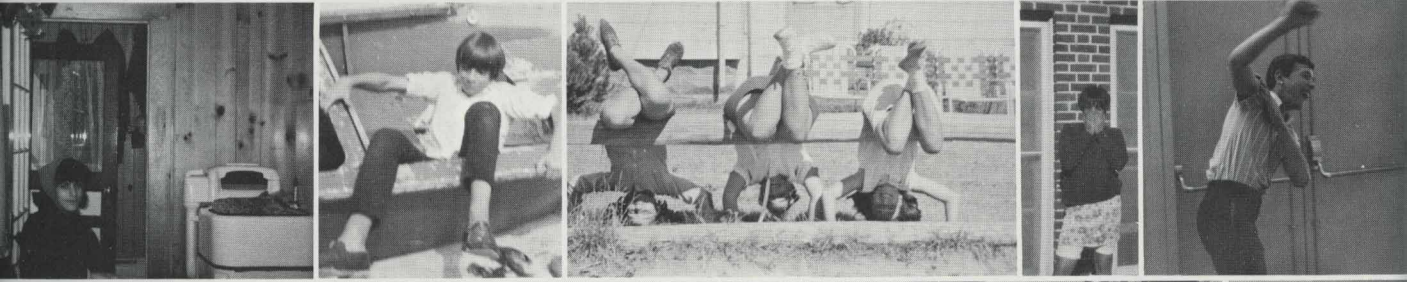

Next, we were given practice teaching assignments in which our members were allowed to conduct classes on the elementary, junior high, and senior high levels. Practice teaching was not only a successful but also an enjoyable experience for those who took advantage of the opportunity.

Before Christmas vacation, the F.T.A. entertained the elementary school with the highly praised, original play called CHARLIE BROWN AWAITS THE GREAT CHRISTMAS TREE. The play had been written by the students in Mrs. Rogers' creative writing class. Under the direction of Miss Lynnette Ligon, we fascinated the children with our costumes and imitations of the "Peanuts" characters.

Through the introduction of new ideas by this year's organization, we feel that it has been a most successful year!

FIELD HOCKEY 1968

We've finally achieved our goal by becoming the champions of the Lower Cape Division. We obtained this distinction by having an outstanding record of 6-3-1, a total of 13 points. It was also a year of satisfaction for we defeated Nauset for the first time in four years. This, to us, was a true accomplishment.

Although the '68 team will lose many seniors, we hope that the '69 team will be as successful as we have been.

Softball '68

As we began the season of 1968 the Provincetown softball team was enthusiastic and filled with team spirit.

Although our team was young, we managed to have a winning season because of the excellent coaching of Miss Elizabeth DeRiggs and the hard work of the players. We had eight wins and six losses.

Because the 1969 team has high team morale, a superb coach, and determination, we know nothing will stop us from having another winning team this year.

Girls' Basketball

For the past three years the girls of the Provincetown High School basketball team have maintained a winning record. Our team has journeyed to Duxbury High School the last two years for the Southeastern Massachusetts Girls' Invitational Basketball Tournament. In 1966 and 1967 we captured the Division B championship title. These victories were gained by the tremendous determination and effort of the team. We feel that these victories were achieved not only by our determination and effort, but also because we are fortunate in having a superior coach, Miss Elizabeth DeRiggs. It is Miss DeRiggs' coaching that led us to the top and, in addition, it is Miss DeRiggs who has given us many happy memories of our years of basketball at P.H.S., memories that will never be forgotten.

I shall not review all of our many victorious scores over the years, but I shall mention the few heart-breaking defeats we had to accept. I can recall Falmouth's game distinctly. It took seventeen hard straight wins before Falmouth could knock that glorious crown of an undefeated season from our heads. Then it was Harwich at the tourney. We lost to them by five points. As a result, we came in second place at the Class B Championship.

This year we are working very hard but with just as much determination as before. The five seniors, Roxanne Cook, Mary Fritz, Kathleen Kacergis, Gloria Meads, and Sheila Oliver, are going to miss playing basketball next year. In addition to the practices and the games, basketball, just as in any other sport, has taught us self control, even though there were times that it was difficult to control our tempers. We have learned one of the lessons of life — to accept defeat gracefully.

Laughter at practice, the fun of traveling up the Cape and to the Islands, hard work, working together, and determination have taught our girls to work as one unit, and to attain our goal.

Boys' Basketball

After two weeks of practicing the basketball team for 1968-69 was chosen. The team is the youngest team that has ever worn a high school basketball uniform.

The starting lineup includes: Stephen Silva, center; Robert Henrique, forward; Brock Papetsas, guard; Joseph Farroba, guard; and Frank Reis, forward. Paul Boire has taken over as coach for our ball club, and we elected Stephen Silva, Brock Papetsas, and Frank Reis as our team captains.

Although we are hoping for a good season, our record at this time is 0-5. Yet, this record is somewhat misleading. The first five games that we have played have been very close ones, and although we tried our hardest and saw the finish of each one end in a defeat, the defeats were by a very small margin.

Our problem at this time seems to be our ball handling, which we are trying to improve in our daily practices. Once we overcome this problem, our scores should increase and we should have a winning season.

TRACK

TRACK

Records are broken every year. 1968 was no exception; 1969 shouldn't be one either. Our record of 1968 was somewhat impressive, as we placed third in the Cape and Islands League.

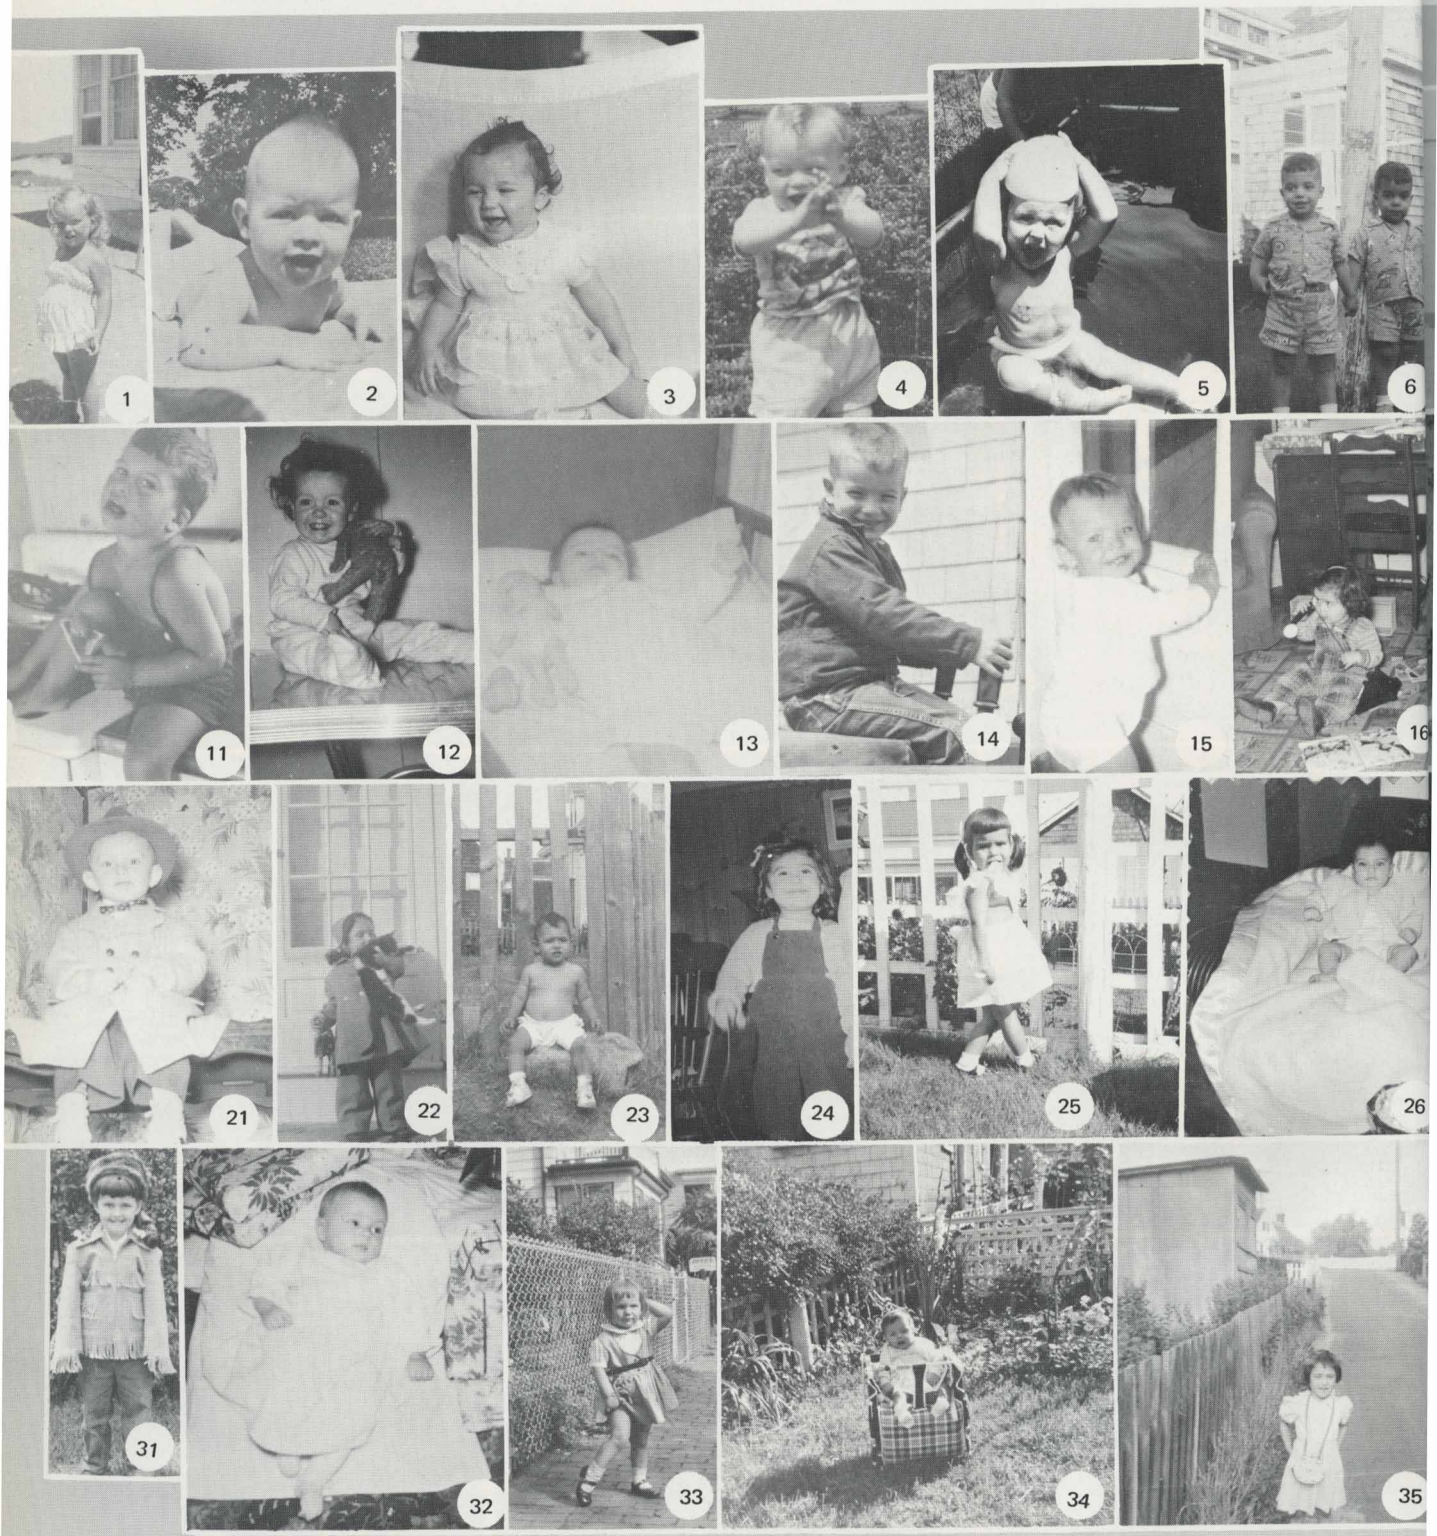

Last year's season is over, yet we acquired many skills during that time. Now we have to think of the on-coming year, which should be another good one. Although we have lost both key sprinters and a key pole vaulter, we have a good group of skillful boys returning. Many of the record breakers of 1968 will be back to shatter not only their own records, but also many more. These record breakers include: Melvin Joseph, Francis Snow, Antonio Dias, Robert Hoernig, Brock Papetsas, James MacFarlane, Joseph Martin, and Daniel Rilleau.

With the returning members of last year's team, new members to the team, and the devotion of Coach Paul Boire, Provincetown High School should again attain its third place title, and perhaps climb a little higher on the competitive league ladder.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The graduating class of 1969 wishes to sincerely thank Mr. Robert Vantine for his competent assistance in aiding our publication of the 1969 Long Pointer.

We are grateful to our many patrons and sponsors for without their cooperative spirit our yearbook would not have been possible.

The members of the class of 1969 wish to extend their deepest gratitude to Miss Kathleen Medeiros and Mrs. Phebe Rogers for their devotion to the publication of this yearbook. They both worked extremely hard and spent much time supervising the literary and business staffs. Without their guidance, it would have been impossible to produce a yearbook such as this one.
