

Back to the Old

A REMINDER OF PURITAN DAYS

was Miss Helen Santos, above, at the opening of the celebration at Provincetown yesterday to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the town. She was one of the many Provincetown maids who donned the garb of maids of the Pilgrim Days in honor of the fete.

Advertiser Photo.

Provincetown 200 Years Young

GALA ARRAY.

Artists and writers, Summer residents at Provincetown, joined hands with the fisherfolk yesterday to make the 200th anniversary celebration of the town one long to be remembered. The picture above shows the town hall at Provincetown decked out in bunting and flags in honor of the start of the three days' celebration. The celebration ends Saturday night.

Advertiser Photo

471-T-21