

Commercial Street, Provincetown, Mass. at the Dedication of the Pilgrim Memorial Monument. August 5, 1910

On the way up Monument hill to the Laying of the Corner Stone. Taken by Ryder Street

Design Criticized

PROVINCETOWN, May 15 — When bids were opened for designs for Provincetown's Pilgrim Monument in the early 1900's about 150 designs were considered. The final choice, announced in 1907, was adversely criticized by Boston architects, many of whom wanted the Provincetown monument to follow the pattern of the Bunker Hill and Washington monuments.

Theodore Roosevelt

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND FAMILY