ARCHITECTURAL DESCRIPTION

see continuation sheet

Describe architectural features. Evaluate the characteristics of this building in terms of other buildings in the community.

230 Bradford Street is a 1-story, 4-bay 3/4 cottage; the roof is side gable with a small central brick chimney at the roof ridge and a large exterior end brick chimney on the left façade; the exterior is clad in wood shingles and the foundation is obscured; fenestration includes 6/6 wood DHS windows with simple surrounds; the primary entrance contains a plank door with a small multi-light transom and flanking pilasters;. An ell is located to the rear, with 6/6 DHS, skylight, and concrete block chimney.

see continuation sheet

Discuss the history of the building. Explain its associations with local (or state) history. Include uses of the building, and the role(s) the owners/occupants played within the community.

As per Tom Boland (1994): "This house is shown on the 1836 map and the 1858 atlas of Provincetown. In 1880, it is noted as owned by E. Birch. The property stayed in the Birch family until at least 1901-1907 when it is noted that the resident was one Enos S. Birch, a switchman."
