It would make me very happy if I could assure each of you that on leaving school you are entering upon a life of happiness and security. I wish further that I could say that you need not worry about your future and the future of our great and beloved country.

This, of course, I cannot do. You are entering a world that could conceivably become enveloped into a nuclear holocaust at any moment.

It is my hope that the more than 10,000 hours you have spent in Provincetown classrooms has instilled in you the knowledge, desire, and drive, to one day be able to stop and consider the world as having become such place as your dreams now would have it achieve.

William Roche, Superintendent

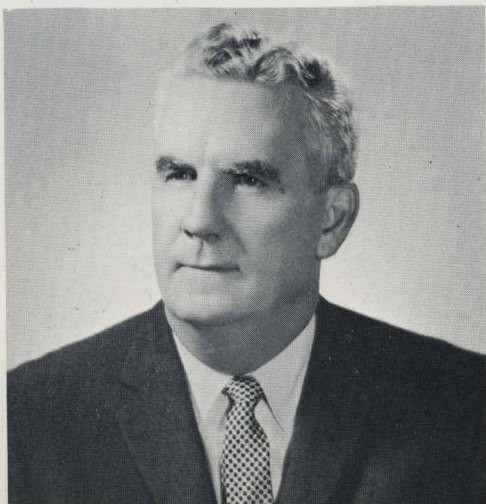

To

The Class of 1962 is to be congratulated for achieving its graduation goal. I would remind each one of your members that the difference between people is energy. A strong will, a settled purpose, and invincible determination can accomplish almost anything; and in this lies the distinction between great and little people. Strive towards the top of the ladder; you'll find the top steps are not as crowded as the bottom ones, since there are fewer people at the top.

George F. Leyden, Principal

The

My congratulations to each member of the graduation class in successfully reaching, perhaps your first objective in life. Let your graduation be but the first of many other worthy objectives. I sincerely hope your past success will motivate you with a desire for further accomplishments that will bring honor to yourself, your parents, your school and your community.

WE ACCEPT LIFE'S CHALLENGE

EDITORIAL

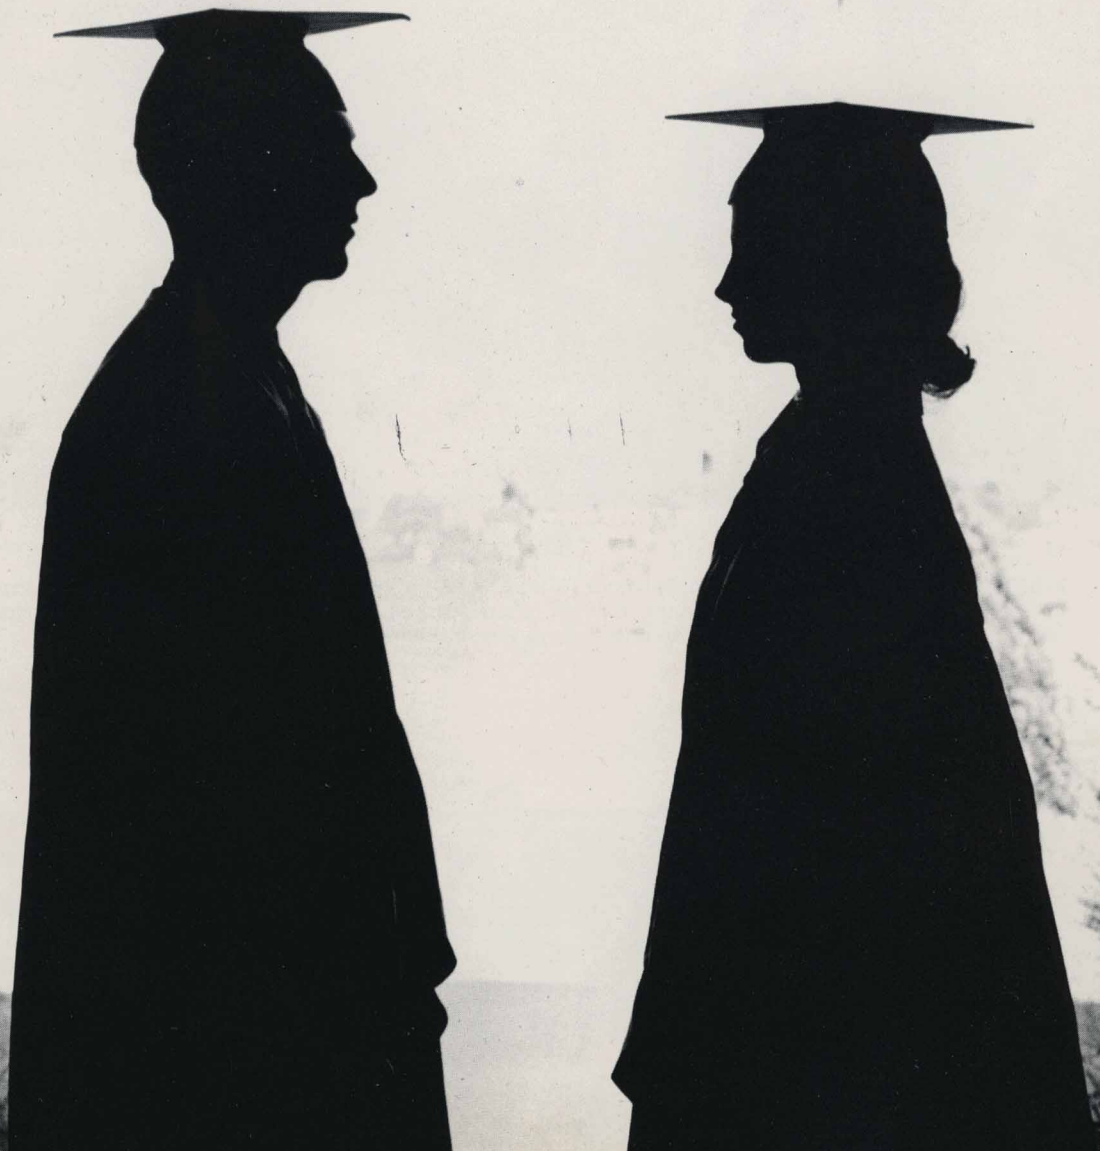

As we enter our Senior Year, all the trials and tribulations of life seem to be thrown upon us. Caught in a sea of perplexity, at times we wander aimlessly straying from our course; but with grim determination, we always manage, in the solving of our problems, to survive the storm and find our way. We shudder at the thought of all the activities and school work expected of us, but we do not turn away from these responsibilities; we accept the challenge life has presented to us. Many of us will continue to be challenged and find success in life; others will fall behind. More important, is the fact that we have entered this race that will, in time, determine our future.

In our future years we will look upon these struggles, not with bitterness and resentment, but rather, with an acute fondness and with an equally strange desire to relive these memorable years that have been taken from us forever. All the football games, parties, and school activities will stand out as cherished memories that have become part of each one of us. Provincetown High School is a monument to the steps that have led us to maturity; steps that have become mingled with the numerous "footprints in the sands of time"; steps that shall be followed by many generations to come.

In presenting this issue of the Long Pointer, the Class of 1962 would like to take time to thank Miss Kathleen Medeiros and Mrs. William Rogers for their patience and guidance so necessary for the completion of this book.

Seniors

1962 SENIO

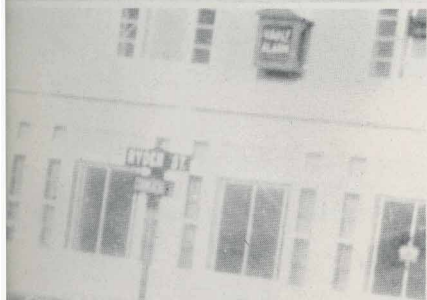

An educational payload classified as Class of '62 has been launched from a four stage booster for the purpose of using its stored data so as to achieve a successful life in the future. It was assembled and launched by the faculty of Provincetown High School. With these few facts in mind, let us now return to the time when this project originated.

With its guidance system functioning on September 5, 1958, the red and white Freshman stage began its long journey with the following class officers: Nelson Rodrigues, President; Charles Souza, Vice-President; Nancy Souza, Secretary; Jane O'Donnell, Treasurer; and Christopher Perry and Manuel Duarte, Student Council representatives. This system was under the close supervision of Mr. John Williams, our class advisor.

Its powerplant, consisting of our sports representatives, were David Gracie, Michael Kacergis, John Vizard, Richard Perry, Peter Dalpe, Christopher Perry, Manuel Duarte, Manuel Davis, Elvio Rodrigues, and Nelson Rodrigues--football; Nancy Souza, Roxanne Pires, Alma Welsh, Patricia Ferreira, Cheryl Santos, Eileen Knowlton, Judith Leonard, Ruth Cabral, Christopher Perry, Peter Dalpe, and Charles Souza--basketball; and Thomas Thomas--football manager.

After achieving its major goal, the acquiring of a preliminary study necessary for further educational advancement, the Freshman stage gave way to the green and white Sophomore stage.

No sooner was this stage in operation when the following class officers were elected to continue the guidance: Nelson Rodrigues, President; Manuel Duarte, Vice-President; Georgianna Motto, Secretary; Jane O'Donnell, Treasurer; and Margaret Strachan and Thomas Thomas, Student Council representatives. Mrs. Phebe Rogers was unanimously chosen as class advisor.

CLASS HISTORY

Then, as the blue and white Junior stage ignited, the period became critical. The work needed to reach our educational goals became more and more difficult. It was not like the other two stages in that the realization of achieving our goals was still years away. The half way mark had finally come and gone as our Junior stage began seriously approaching its destination.

Like the other stages, it had its guidance system, consisting of the following: Nelson Rodrigues, President; Ruth Cabral, Vice-President; Georgianna Motta, Secretary; Jane O'Donnell, Treasurer; and Thomas Thomas and Jane Russe, Student Council representatives, and Mrs. Bedell as class advisor.

It also had for its ever-growing athletic thrust: Joseph Bogolowski, Francis Peters, Richard Perry, Robert Cordeiro, Michael Kacergis (Co-captain), Peter Dalpe (Co-captain), Norman Russell, Gerald Timpani, Elvio Rodrigues, and Nelson Rodrigues--football; Margaret Strachan, Cheryl Santos, Nancy Souza, Alma Welsh, Peter Dalpe, Thomas Thomas, James Cook, Stephen Colley, Richard Perry, Kenneth Dutra, Charles Souza, and Sherman Merrill--basketball; Francis Peters, Thomas Thomas, Peter Dalpe, Gerald Timpani, Michael Kacergis, Elvio Rodrigues, and Nelson Rodrigues--Track; Roxanne Pires--cheerleader and Rosemarie Pasiuk--assistant basketball manager.

Because of some new attractions, this stage is mostly remembered for its cherished Junior Prom and for its variety of activities, ranging from dances to food sales, the latter made possible with the gracious help of the Mothers' Club.

Now that the last and most vital stage—the Senior stage—has finally become operational, most of our past hopes and dreams are entering near-fulfilment.

This red and white stage chose for its last guidance, Ruth Cabral, President; Nelson Rodrigues, Vice-President; Roxanne Pires, Secretary; Jane Russe, Treasurer; Thomas Thomas and Elvio Rodrigues, Student Council representatives; and Miss Kathleen Medeiros as class advisor. We are honored in having Thomas Thomas and Elvio Rodrigues chosen as President and Vice-President respectively of the Student Council.

Representing its power on the football squad were: Francis Peters, Richard Perry, Robert Cordeiro, Peter Dalpe, Manuel Duarte, Thomas Thomas, Sherman Merrill, Michael Kacergis (Co-captain), Elvio Rodrigues, and Nelson Rodrigues (Co-captain), with Roxanne Pires and Rosemarie Pasiuk as cheerleaders.

The Senior stage is especially noted for the sponsoring of the Freshman Reception, for the cake sales, and the chicken pie suppers, all of which were tremendously successful.

At last the long awaited payload, consisting of thirty-nine seniors, is well on its way. Whatever the future holds for us is now in God's hands. No longer are we to rely on the protection of our teachers and parents, for we have been shown how to become young adults, and we must convert this learning into practical use.

In conclusion, I'd like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the class of '62's sincere appreciation to the faculty and our parents for their never ending devotion in helping us reach that threshold known as "the future."

SENIOR CANDIDS

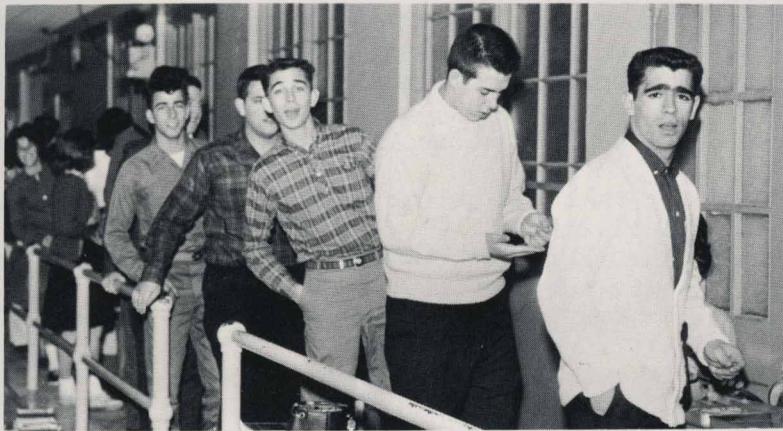

THROUGHOUT THE DAY . . .

That's right, buddy, I'm feeding my face!

Who is the teacher now?

22¢, 23¢, 25¢; hey wait a minute! 22¢, 23¢, 24¢

. . . AT P. H. S.

I tried to teach them.

Gee, Mr. Pasiuk, I don't have enough fingers to count that high.

Even if I'm not seven feet tall, I can still shoot.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Diary,

I'm so excited, I can hardly write! You'll never in a billion-trillion years guess what happened at our tenth class reunion last night! I sold 38 Trino Rex Elephant Houses! Imagine that!

But that's only half of the great news! Listen to this:

Remember JoAnn Annone, our "quiet-as-a-mouse" girl? Well, she's now a movie star on the Ernie Kovac's television program, "Silence, Please".

Joe Bogolowski and Robert Stark, our two "Voke" boys, became so efficient at fixing nuts and bolts, that they are now the "head" doctors at Taunton.

Stephen Colley, a jet pilot, and Thomas Thomas, owner of the T. L. T. No-smear Lipstick Company, were elected President and Vice-President of the 85 per cent club.

Our peppy cheerleader, Roxanne Pires left air line hostessing to become a model for Gordon's socks. She's in the paper every day under the heading, "Come see 'Roxy' in Gordon's seamless run-proof nylons."

I hear where James Cook and Thomas Pires have become the authors of a recent best seller in Moscow, WE LED THREE LIVES FOR OLD NICKY!

Eileen Knowlton, who became a chemist, invented a beauty vanishing cream. For her experiments, she used leopards--but now all that's left are the spots.

The greatest invention of the grocery world came when Bob Cordeiro, our local check out boy, invented the automatic bag packer. Poor Bob is now out of a job.

Next, we come to Peg Strachan and Georgianna Motto who became the Florence Nightingales of our class. Seems as though they took first prize in the National Bed Pan Relay Race.

Peter Dalpe, our life guard of the past, was the first man to swim across the Atlantic and back again in two hours. Wow!

Manuel Duarte went into the record business and became a millionaire when his album, "Sing Jaba with Abba", sold over two million copies.

Jerry Timpani, the luckiest man in the world, found the Hope Diamond the other day when he slipped on a banana peeling and suffered a compound fracture of his left leg.

Kenneth Dutra, the Great White Hunter of East Borneo, captured the "Abominable Snowman" alive.

To earn a little extra cash for such trinkets as Cadillacs and elephants, Francis Guertin and Norman Russell joined the circus as Mr. Big and Mr. Little.

Judy Leonard was presented with the famous pink heart award for polishing the Eddystone light daily for ten years.

As the years passed, Richard Felton had become owner and head waiter of a chain of Cottage Restaurants. We understand that Dickie does the cooking too.

David Gracie, who never liked to shave, grew a beard so long that one could easily identify David from a distance.

Next, we come to Michael Kacergis, who became a famous welder by soldering the arms back on Venus d'Milo.

Sharon Lopez, star of Romeo and Juliet, forgot her lines one night and said, "Garry, Garry, wherefore art thou?" From somewhere a voice replied, "In the bushes, the trellis broke!"

Sherman "Squash" Merrill became head of the new Navy attack system, which he called "Squash 'em", what else?

Our most sophisticated lass, Jane O'Donnell is now a professional "beatnik". Her poetry sessions sell at $150 per hour.

Francis Peters and Alma Welsh opened a bakery the other day. Their specialty is "Welsh's Fudge".

"The Most Athletic Girl in the World" title went to Kathy O'Donnell who took Bob Cousy's place on the Celtic's team and led them on to an undefeated season.

Next we have Elvio and Nelson Rodrigues. Elvio found his peace without fear in a Coast Guard station near Bonnie, Bonnie, Scotland. While Nelson set up an Air Force station on the moon. (The underclassmen always thought he was heavenly--the girls, that is.)

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

John Vizard aimed for great heights in life and found them, too. He cleans the upper most windows of the Empire State Building.

Jane Russe, who was always counting money, on becoming President of the National Mint, wall papered her bedroom with five dollar bills.

Cheryl Santos won a beauty contest the other day. She 's now "Miss Eyelash Beautiful 1982".

Charles Souza decided that the Coast Guard was not for him because he could only float and not swim.

Nancy Souza has been on the Best Dressed list for the past five years. She credits her success to marrying a Paris fashion designer.

Good old Elizabeth Thomas got carried away while teaching Home Ec. one day. She fell into a huge frying pan and now she's poly-unsaturated.

This brings us to Richard Perry who controls a monopoly on all the eggs in Truro. He's really quite a business man.

As you can see, dear diary, all my classmates have been very successful in life. But we always knew they would be, didn't we?

Guess what? The mailman just arrived with the 38 Trino pre-fab houses! I'm so excited! Good-bye for now, dear diary, I must make my deliveries.

Faithfully in Trino Rex Houses,
Ruth Cabral '62

LIFE AT P. H. S.

The clanging of the school bell
Resounds through salty air.
Each student briskly saunters
Toward his homeroom chair.

Attendance is soon taken,
The day's classes then commence.
The pupils earnestly endeavor
To master English, Math. and French.

Enjoying each other's company,
Each class together gains
The fun of youth together;
While upon them knowledge rains.

Our days here at our high school
Prepare us for future years.
Years that hold unknown treasures;
Treasures of both happiness and fears.

The impression has been made,
And there is one thing you can guess,
That our memories will never fade
Of our life at P. H. S.

A DAY AT SCHOOL

In first period we have English
With a teacher stern but kind
There's novels and poetry books to read
And nouns and verbs to find.

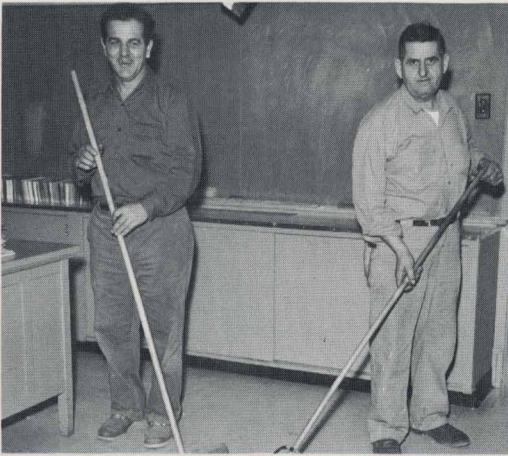

Next we go into Latin
Prepare to memorize!
The Romans must have had a time
Pronouncing words like VESTIZE.

Then we journey into the unknown
X plus Y equals Z
Algebra with its X's and Y's and removing parentheses.

Now we all come into science class
We're gonna break the atom!
Learning about the sun and moon
Venus, Mars, and Saturn.

Then the bell rings, loud and clear
And we all troop home
Out comes the homework, on goes the T.V.
And with that I'll end my poem.

UNDER CLASS MEN

THE JUNIOR CLASS

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

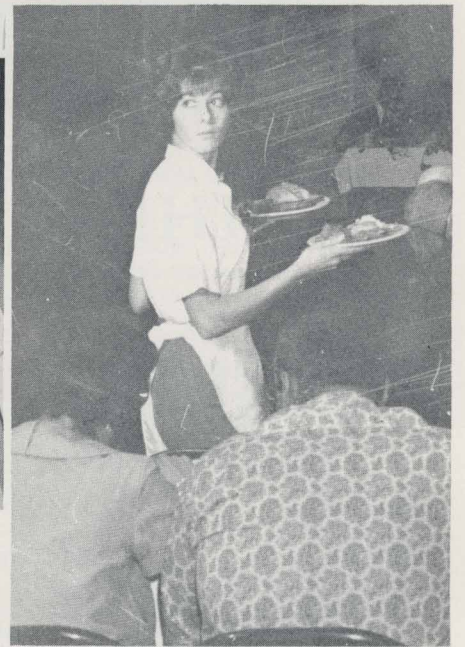

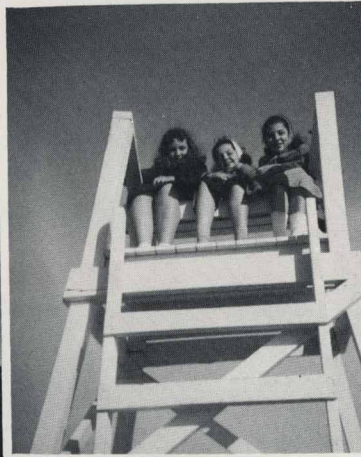

We, the Class of 1963, the Juniors, are the well-known figures in the hallowed halls of Provincetown High School. For the past two years, those wonderful intermediate years, we have experienced the joys of self-satisfaction and gratification which are procured only by diligently working side-by-side with our classmates. Expectation coupled with resolve has given the class their long awaited foothold on that precarious ladder of accomplishment.

The class functions as a self-sufficient unit, relying occasionally upon the counsel of its well-chosen advisors. Aside from this support, we have an unusually independent class which is constituted of many ambitious and aspiring individuals.

Though now we are confronted with the trials and tribulations of those difficult teen years and yearn for that time when we will be accepted members of society, we cannot help but feel that someday, too, we will join the rest in saying, "Oh, to be a carefree Junior again!"

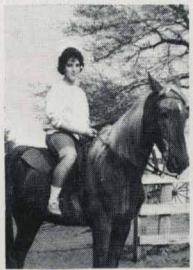

Our Junior Year, filled with many disillusionments and disappointments, offers each one of us new opportunities and challenges. We think that the world is about to be placed at our feet because we have triumphantly mastered a few obstacles, and yet it is just a mere stepping stone on that time-worn path to success. We earnestly believe that this trodden way will be paved just for us, for ours are the minds of undaunted youths.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Sophomore Class History

At last we were the mighty freshmen,
So proud to be with the upperclassmen,
Until we glimpsed the work ahead
And decided we'd rather be downstairs instead.

The officers for our freshmen year,
I'm sure you all will like to hear,
Were Frank, Karen, Sue, and Mike,
A choice that everyone did like.

At our Freshman Reception dance,
All were on the floor to prance
That night the girls were full of joy,
For they had themselves a senior boy.

In the sports field we were new
And usually belonged to the bench-
warming crew,
But when we were given the chance to fight,
We really fought will all our might.

The close of this year did come
To add our memories to one sum,
As all the boys and girls could see,
We were wondering how our next would be.

Now the Sophomores of "62",
Carol, Karen, Mary, and Sue
Were chosen as our officers for this year,
So everyone relax and have no fear.

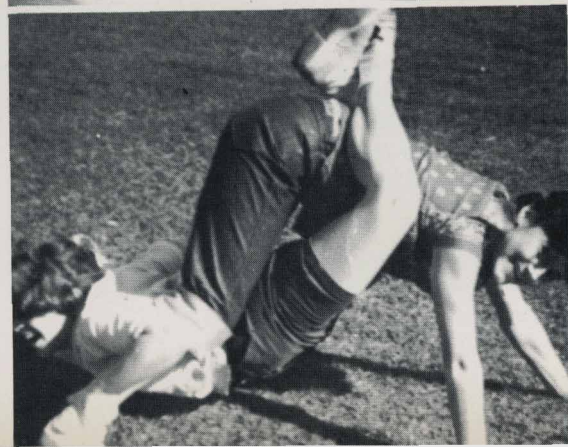

We are represented on the football field
Because our boys will never yield.
They really block and pass and run
To make those touchdowns one by one.

Our class is known both far and wide
For its parties that are given
This, to you, I will confide,
We really believe in livin'!

Since we always study hard,
We all get A's on our cards.
We're always with our honor roll pins
With happy faces and enormous grins.

This history now will have to end.
Since much time with this you all did spend.
A good-by for this year I now will say
And hope you'll be at next year's opening day.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

Class History

September 6, 1961 finally arrived! We were freshmen at last! As we climbed the stairs to the top floor, a new and wonderfully different feeling overwhelmed us. Now, as we leave our Junior High School years in the past, we begin our difficult progression along the road of adult hardships. At first, our teachers and new subjects seemed strange, but we soon overcame our uncertainty and fear.

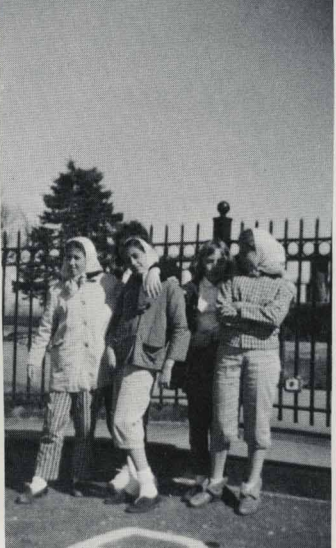

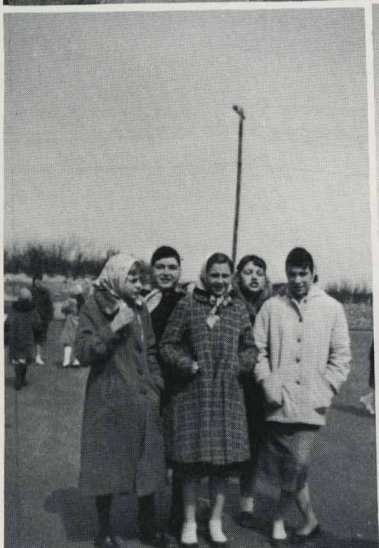

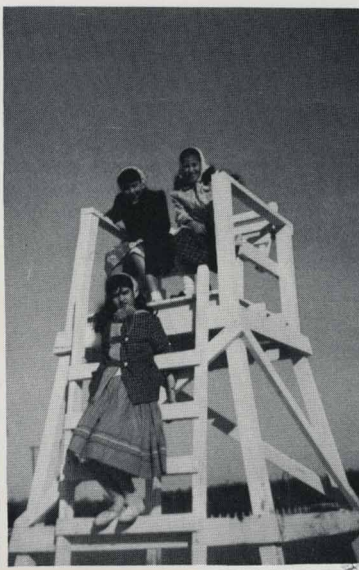

On September 14, we organized our first class meeting. The officers for our first high school year were as follows: Christopher Ormsby, president; Edward Veara, vice-president; Judith Lane, secretary; and John Atkins, treasurer. Agnes Trahar and David Salvador were elected to represent us on the Student Council. We were fortunate to have Mr. Thomas Kane as our Class Advisor.

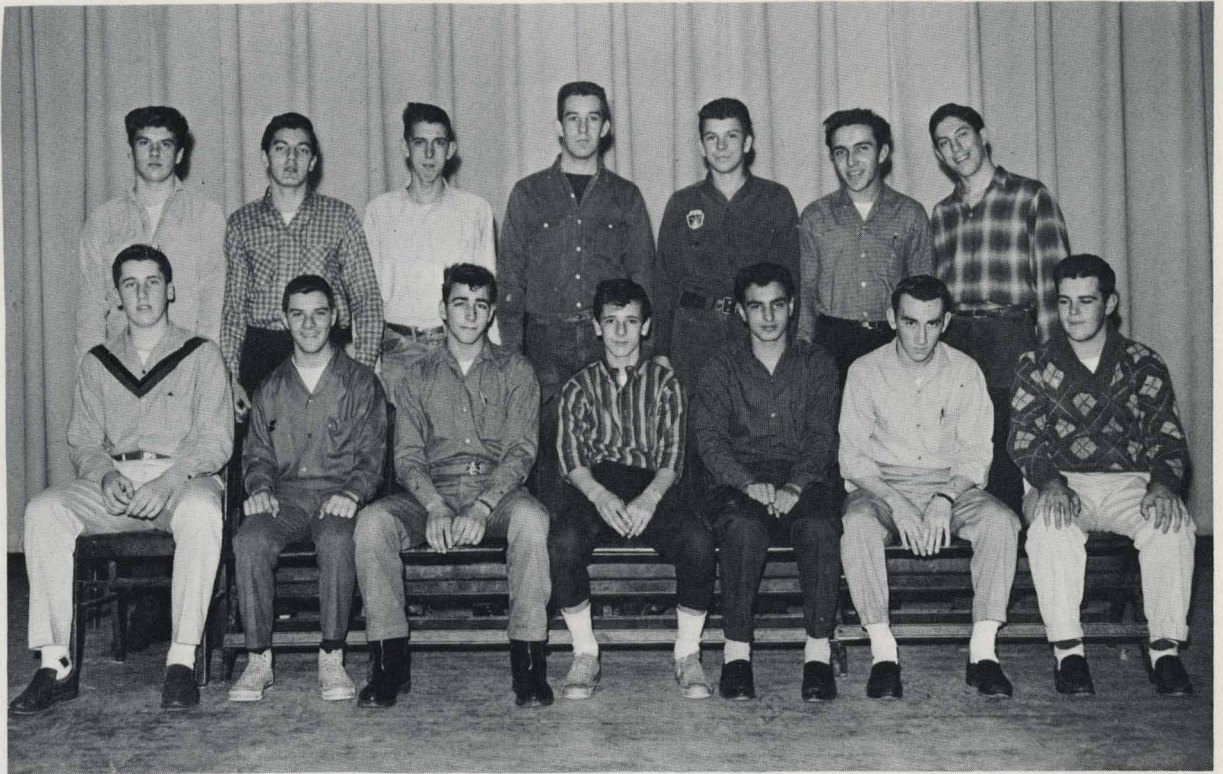

The exciting night of the Freshman Reception came on September 29. We were presented with white carnations by the seniors, and the entire evening was most thrilling for all who attended.

We were proudly represented by our athletes on the football field. They were John Atkins, Carlton Fetner, Christopher Ormsby, Daniel Peters, David Salvador, Richard Russe, Edward Veara, and Joseph Ward.

Now that we have attained the title of Freshmen, our overall goal is success. With hard work and the will of God, we will ascertain our many cherished dreams.

PROVINCETOWN VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

Because of the demand for more and better-trained automechanics in our nation's ever increasing automobile industry, the Provincetown Vocational School has progressed in the last few years in order that it might set its pupils on a firmer road to the future. The Vocational School with its fine equipment, Diesel engines and patient instructors has made this course both interesting and enlightening, but to our dismay many people never visit our building on Bradford Street. We feel that we have excellent facilities and we would like to make it known. We hope, in the future, more adults and students alike will visit us more often to show their support.

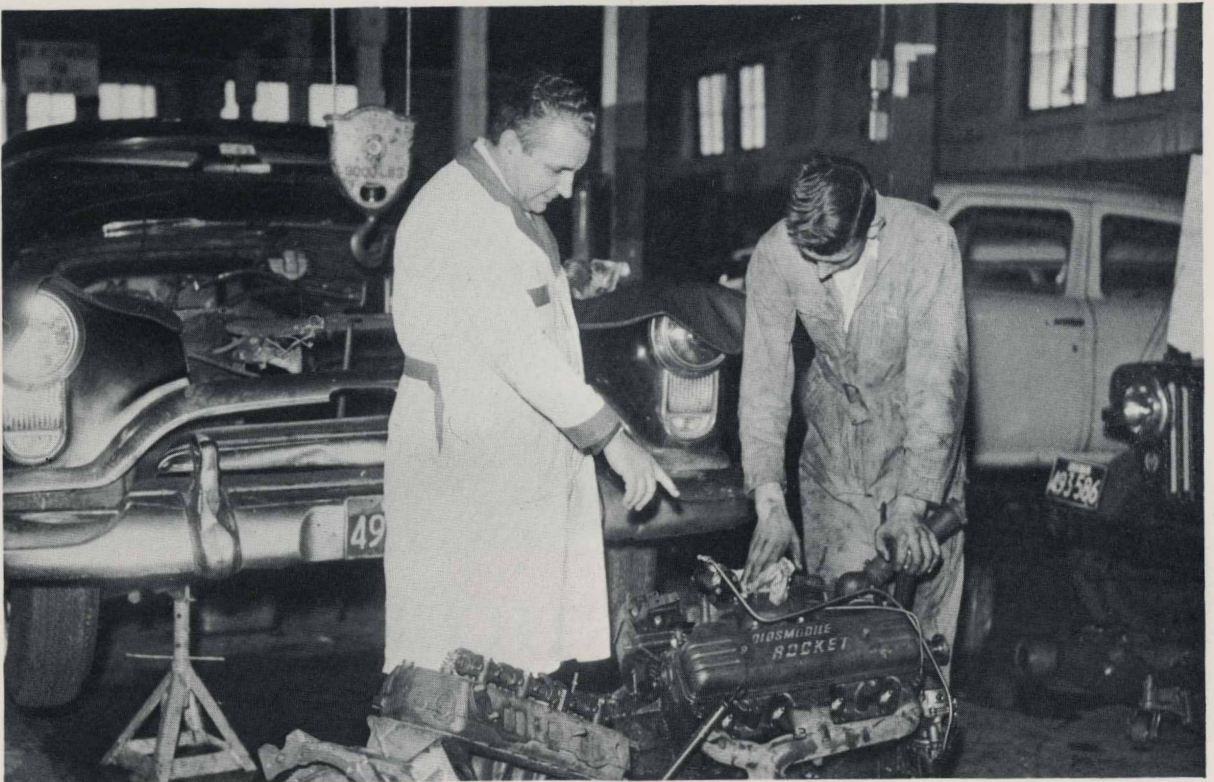

In closing, the Vocational Class of 1962 expresses its appreciation to all of the instructors who have guided us in this past year.

Star Dust

A NIGHT TO BE CHERISHED

Beginning in September, 1960, the Junior Class began discussing preparations for the Junior Prom. It seemed as though this long dreamed-of event might at last become a reality.

What was the date to be? May 26, 1961. How about the theme? After a long discussion, the class finally agreed upon "Star Dust."

Since our class colors were blue and white, plans for the decorations were made in the form of silver evening stars, blue and white crepe paper, and multi-colored angels.

The night before the big event arrived, most of us were so excited that we couldn't eat, sleep, or do our homework. Somehow we had to struggle through the next day, even if it took the last semblance of patience we had.

At nine o'clock on the evening of the 26th of May, we nervously formed our lines and tried to suppress our feelings of fear and excitement. We all had apprehensions as to how we would survive what seemed like the longest thirty minutes of the evening. When the march was at last completed, we could breathe easily knowing that we had successfully performed the Grand March.

As tradition dictated, the king and queen from the previous Junior Prom crowned Cheryl Santos and Thomas Thomas the new royal pair.

After the march and crowning were over, the night sped on to an end. Even though our Junior Prom was just one event in our four short high school years, it would always be cherished in the hearts and memories of the Class of '62.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

During the winter, the Senior Class of 1962 presented in the Provincetown High School auditorium, Janes F. Stone's rollicking comedy, MADE-TO-ORDER HERO. After the chatter of the capacity audience had ebbed with lights, the curtains gracefully exposed the setting for the school year's most amusing entertainment.

The theme of the play concerned an earnest but nondescript high school student who desired to be popular. Clarence Threepwood, who was gallantly portrayed by Michael Kacergis, was advised by his best friend, Beansy Benham, (John Vizard) that "glamour, my boy, glamour" was the medium for popularity. The two conspired to assume a fascinating and romantic past for Clarence. While Beansy and Clarence browsed through the newspaper for a glamorous name, they saw a picture of Dolores Parker, a socialite, (Jane O'Donnell), and decided upon her. The purpose of this intrigue was to impress a popular fellow-student, Mary Benson, (Georgianna Motto) so that she would accept Clarence's invitation to an important dance.

When Clarence's arch rival, track star Vaughn Beach, (Thomas Thomas), hired Kay Troy, (Roxanne Pires), a chorus girl, to disprove Clarence's tale, knowledge of the complications which were to follow became evident.

Meanwhile, Dolores Parker entered as the visitor of Hortense Holly, (Cheryl Santos), and Helen Stringer, (Alma Welsh). Already confused, Clarence learned that he was to run in a coming track meet for a sick athlete, Joey Work, (Robert Cordeiro). When Dolores learned the story that Clarence concocted, she announced that she would be his date for the dance, if he won. Since Clarence promised Mary that he would take her, if he won, it wasn't safe for him to win the race, and if he lost, Vaughn Beach would have another occasion to insult him. However, since he placed a lizard in Clarence's gym trunks, Beansy was confident.

After Clarence had won the race, Vaughn was furious and Dolores's fiancée, Glen Glump, (James Cook), who had just entered the confusion, was very jealous. At this propitious moment, Joey Work fainted from what was thought to be small pox, and everyone was quarantined. When the doctor (Nelson Rodrigues), finally discovered that Joey had the measles, everything was explained. All gratefully departed, including a policeman, (Elvio Rodrigues), who entered to give Beansy a speeding ticket and was swept into the turmoil, and Mary convinced Clarence that she liked him for himself.

The curtain closed on two months of trying and amusing rehearsals for the cast, but certainly an entertaining evening for the audience.

STUDENT COUNCIL

On two Mondays of every month, a group of students assemble in the library with several purposes in mind. Many of these purposes you are already familiar with, such as the Student Council functions at games, the sponsoring of various activities, and the power vested in Student Council members to enforce the regulations governing our school. In view of these lesser functions, many major functions are being overlooked.

Actually, your Student Council represents the individual classes, thus comprising a type of student union, headed by a president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer, who are, respectively, Thomas Thomas, Elvio Rodrigues, and Carol Salvador. This student union is dedicated to the ideas of not only protecting your privileges by asserting your importance as students, but also, through concentration and knowledge of school affairs, creating a satisfactory union between the faculty and the student body.

P. H. S. BAND

Under the competent supervision of Mr. James Santos, the Provincetown High School Band has achieved a new level in musical education. The band's achievement was noticeable particularly when they played the martial music at the football games and the classical and semi-classical music at school assemblies. The faculty and students have observed these improvements and in turn, the members of the band have been encouraged to strive to further perfect their playing.

On October 14th, the band went to Hyannis to witness the superb performance of the United States Marine Band. The fifty talented musicians provided a very entertaining and inspiring evening.

Each year, the band participates in the All

Cape Music Festival. This year, unlike other years, when all members of the band could enter the festival, only a selected group will be chosen to represent the school. This is a challenge to the members and encourages the students to improve.

Another activity of the band is the annual Spring Concert which is held in May. At this affair, each student is given the opportunity to display his progress before family and friends. One of the last important performances of the year is playing at the Class Day and Graduation exercises. It is at these activities that the band proves it is an asset to our school.

ASSEMBLIES

Last December, Provincetown High School was proud and honored to have a distinguished guest, Mr. Edward Kennedy, the Assistant District Attorney for Suffolk County, speak to the student body. Mr. Kennedy briefed the student body of the conditions existing in South America. He related humorous anecdotes of the experiences he had encountered while campaigning for his famous brother, President John Kennedy.

This highly successful assembly was only one of the many that were sponsored by the school for this year. Others of equal merit were:

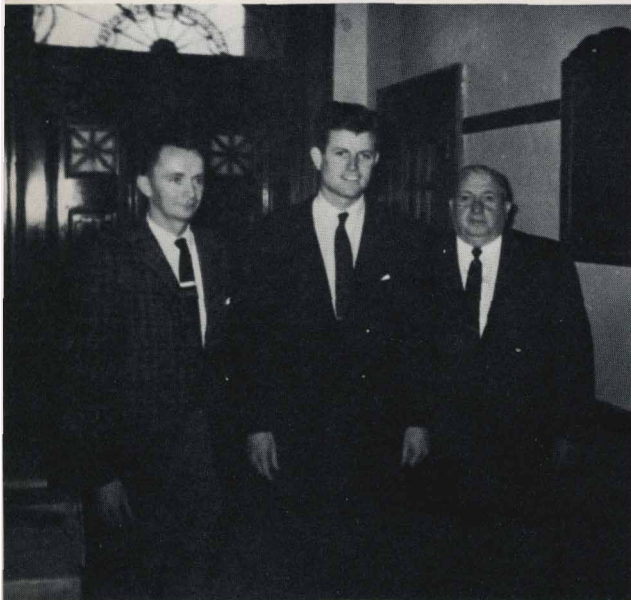

1. The Animal Circus Show
2. The Art of Wrestling and Physical Fitness
3. A Demonstration of the Power of Memory
4. Christmas Assembly

Our assembly programs have proved educational, informative, and entertaining for both the student body and the faculty.

FRESHMAN RECEPTION

As the red and white decorations fluttered gaily above, the eager and naive Freshmen awaited the Grand March. Led by Ruth Cabral and Christopher Ormsby, it consisted of the largest group of Freshmen and Seniors ever assembled in the history of Provincetown High School. With white carnations presented by the Seniors as badges of identification and hopes for a memorable and enjoyable evening, the Seniors and the Freshmen executed with precision the steps they had practiced so painstakingly for the past week. Having performed the Grand March flawlessly, each and everyone relaxed, enjoying an evening that would always be remembered.

Co-captains: Number 33, Nelson Rodrigues; and number 44, Michael Kacergis.

We began our 1961-62 football season aided by two new coaches and the return of many lettermen. Demonstrating our willingness to do plenty of hard work and with enthusiasm, we started practicing under the instruction of coaches Adolph Pasiuk, William Chambers, and Walter Dagle, and gradually developed into a team.

With only a few weeks of practice under our belts, we encountered our first opponent, Bourne, on our own gridiron. Even though we lost 14-8, it proved to be a thrilling game. The score was not indicative of the way our team played. In the last seconds of the game we were driving toward paydirt but unfortunately, time was against us. In total yardage we racked up more than Bourne, and in first downs we had 10, while Bourne had six. Unfortunately, it is the score that is entered in the books.

This close defeat strengthened our determination to defeat our next opponent, which was Martha's Vineyard. We met them on the island and came home with a victory, 14-12.

The following week we met Apponequet Regional of Lakeville on our territory. This turned out to be another close contest but they took it, 16-8. Again, time played a major factor in the outcome.

After this defeat, the team was then more determined than ever to win, and we did! We took our next opponent, Martha's Vineyard, 16-14. Again the score isn't representative of the fine game that we played because several of our TD's were nullified.

After an open date, we collided with Bishop Stang of Dartmouth losing 38-0. In this game we were really outclassed, for we lacked the depth that Stang possessed; however, it did provide us with plenty of experience and a sense of pride to have played such a large school.

The next week we played a close game at Barnstable. Their J. V.'s were leading us in the last quarter, but in the final minutes we made a long, 80 yard drive and tied the score. However, the conversion for the extra points failed so the game ended in a tie. This left the boys with an empty feeling because victory had been so near. The effort and strength that was evident in the games we played should be a good sign for our next games with Dennis-Yarmouth and Nantucket. As of now the season stands 2-3-1.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

In December of this year, all prospective candidates were eager to launch another basketball season. We looked forward to a highly successful season.

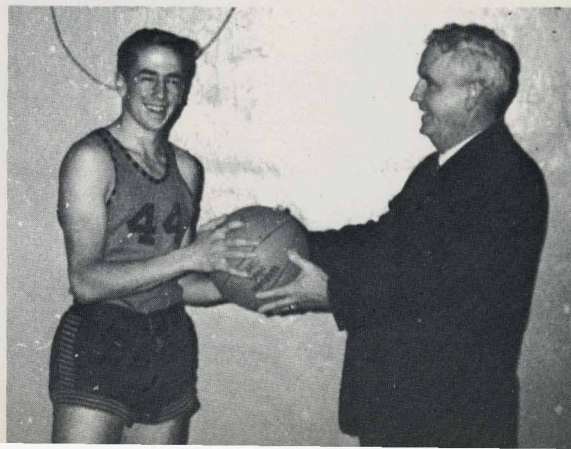

On December 8th, we traveled to Dennis-Yarmouth High School to participate in the Cape Basketball Preview. Each team on the Cape played two--eight minute quarters. No warm-ups or timeouts were allowed and three minutes allowed for fouls and jump balls. This rule was enforced in order to assure each pairing, a maximum of 15 minutes. We were slated to meet Barnstable and Bourne. There is no individual team scoring kept. The purpose is to allow each school to exhibit their current year's potentiality.

For our opening game on December 12th, we traveled back to Dennis-Yarmouth High School and emerged victorious--final tally 48-44. We were doubly pleased to be able to present a win to our Coach David Murphy, who, on this night, was launching his 20th year as head basketball coach for Provincetown High School.

On December 15th, we played host to Falmouth High School. It was one of those nights that we couldn't seem to find the range or take advantage of the so-called "breaks" and therefore, suffered a defeat of 59-42.

On December 19th, we were the first team to play in the new Bourne High Gym and to aid in its dedication. It was a bitter, disappointing night for us because we were only able to hit with nine field goals for the entire game. The final tally 52-34.

At this point, we were eager for a game in the win column. On the 21st of December, our efforts and faith were rewarded by being able to trounce Sandwich 72-39 on our home floor.

Our first encounter after the Christmas Vacation was on January 3rd when we played host to Barnstable High School. We emerged victorious--the score at the final whistle, 74-49.

January 5th, we traveled to Harwich High School for an encounter with the League's undefeated Rough Riders. It was an exciting nip and tuck game and we surged ahead to be the winners 61-54.

On January 9th, we played Chatham High School on our home court and once again we were victorious, 78-35.

On January 12th, we traveled to Nauset High School and again, we were able to post a check mark on the winning side by defeating the Warriors 59-37.

January 19th found our opponent Dennis-Yarmouth High School. The game was a thrilling one and a fracas that was in doubt until the final minutes of play. However, the Green Dolphins topped us 61-55.

On January 23rd, we traveled to Falmouth High School with the hopes of avenging the loss handed us earlier in the season on our home court. A third quarter, which it seemed that all went wrong, was instrumental in handing us another defeat of 52-44.

The following Friday, January 26th, we played host to Bourne High School. This was an important game for both teams in order to remain in solid contention for the Principal's Tournament. We took an early lead and kept it until the final whistle claimed us victors 72-52.

Our J. V. Team has had a very successful season to date, losing only two games; one to the Rough Riders at Harwich and one to the Canalmen on our home court.

At the present time, we still have five games left to play--Sandwich, Barnstable, Harwich, Chatham and Nauset. We will continue to rally for victories to assure us a berth in the Principal's Tourney and if team confidence and aspirations are contributing factors in winning, we will certainly be victorious.

Charles Souza '62

In the season of 1960-61 when the Provincetown basketball team journeyed to the Bay State Tournament, Charles Souza '62 and Lewis Samuels '63 were selected from close competition to the Bay State All Star Team for their fine performances.

Charles Souza, a versatile senior, also proved he has as much brain as brawn for he was selected in June of 1961, to represent Cape Cod at a Science Fair held in November of 1961, at Chicago, Illinois. There, he attended lectures on the atom, visited museums of science, and surveyed industrial plants.

We are proud that both Charles and "Sammy" are students in our school, for they have not only brought honor to themselves and to our school, but they have also set goals for underclassmen to strive to emulate.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The second week in November marked the beginning of practice for the 1961-1962 girls' basketball team. During the first few days of practice, one could readily see that the Fisherettes were in for a long awaited victorious season.

On December 12, the Provincetown Lassies rolled to a well deserved victory over the Dennis-Yarmouth Dolphinettes, much to the delight of a capacity crowd of P. H. S. routers. From the opening buzzer, the score remained nip and tuck, the victory belonging to anyone, until June Phillips took the reins and forged her team onto a 47-35 upset.

Once again, victory reigned as the Fisherettes squeezed by the Sandwich Glasstown Lassies 52-50. This game of the hardwood proved to be an old-time cliff hanger, as a basket scored by Margie Vasques in the last five seconds of the game broke the 50-50 tie and gave the home forces their second victory of the season.

All good things must come to an end, and so it is with basketball. In a real seat squirmer, the Raiderettes of Barnstable edged out our girls by a 31-30 score. Our outstanding forwards, Nancy Souza, Margie Vasques, and June Phillips went on a scoring spree in the second half, only to fall short of that one point which might have meant another victory for our Fisherettes. Their first defeat did not dampen the spirits of the girls for they showed excellent sportsmanship.

Our second defeat was recorded as the Harwich Lassies invaded the P. H. S. gymnasium and emerged with a 35-32 victory. The Fisherettes bounced back in the last quarter to come within three points of grasping their third upset. Peggy Strachan, Kathy O'Donnell, and Cheryl Santos did an excellent job on the defensive end, and Nancy Souza tallied 19 points for a fine offensive game.

The Fisherettes gained their third victory on the Chatham home court as they defeated the Blue Devils by a 30-23 margin. Nancy Souza was high scorer with 12 points.

On January 12, visiting Nauset defeated the P. H. S. Lassies by a score of 37-20. The home town cagers seemed to have had a difficult time getting started in the first two quarters of the game, but stormed back in the second half, only to have their rally fall short. June Phillips tallied 12 points to emerge with high scoring honors.

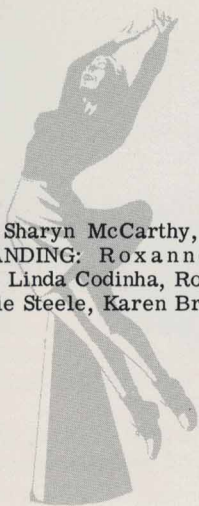

At the Dennis-Yarmouth Regional High School, the Dolphinettes bounced back to avenge a defeat earlier in the season by emerging with a 44-31 victory over the Lassies of P. H. S. It seemed as though our forwards just couldn't make those shots count. June Phillips was high scorer with 9 points.

Expert marksmanship resulted in a 39-21 victory over the Maroon and White of Falmouth. Nancy Souza and Margie Vasques tied for high scoring honors with 15 markers each. Playing a steady offensive game, they sent many spectacular shots swishing through the net.

When this edition goes to press, there will be five more games to be played: Sandwich, Barnstable, Harwich, Chatham, and Nauset. Nevertheless, everyone knows that the Fisherettes will continue to play a steady game and to be good sports whether they win or lose.

CHEERLEADERS 1961-62

As the tense girls stood on the stage, we knew the tremors which they were experiencing. We, too, had been fearful, yet hopeful, as to whether we would become the new cheerleaders of P.H.S.

The votes were counted and to our delight Karen Broderick was our new regular, while Nancy Burch and Rosemarie Pasiuk were chosen as our alternates.

Nancy and Rosemarie along with the cheerleaders from last year that is, Sharyn McCarthy, Frances Patrick, Roxanne Pires, Bonnie Steele, and Linda Codinha composed our eager group.

Sharyn McCarthy and Frances Patrick were chosen as co-captains.

We knew well what was ahead, for experience had proven that cheering is not all glory.

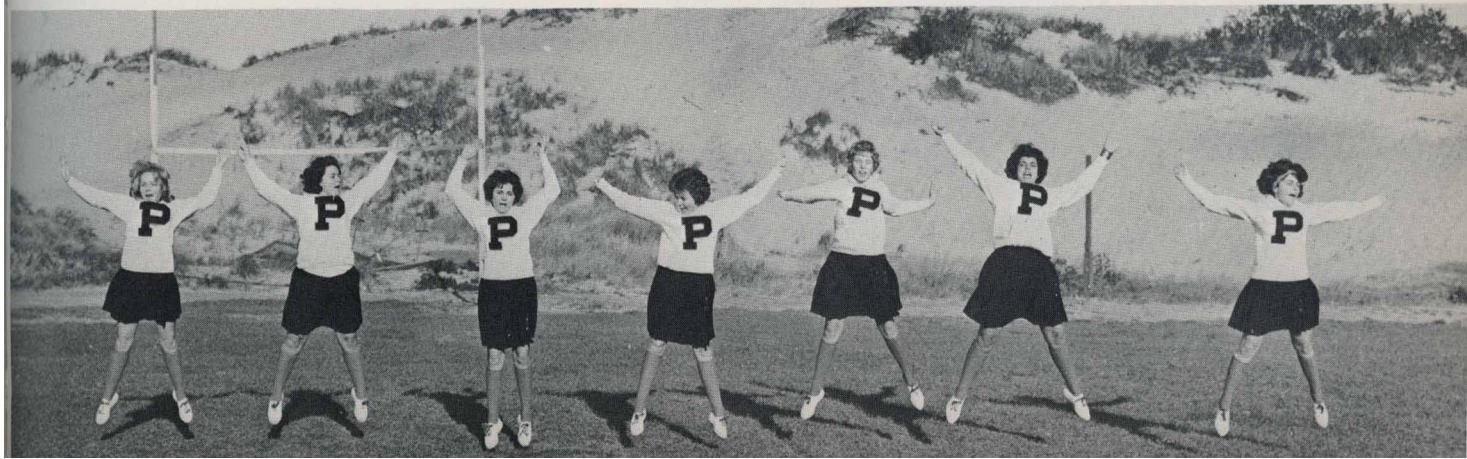

There must be practice; there must be rules and regulations. A cheerleader must set an example, for she represents her school. She should be neat and must maintain a high scholastic achievement.

The last, and perhaps the most important qualification, is that she must be able to cheer the players, no matter whether we are losing or winning.

Our year has been very successful, for we not only created many new cheers but also altered some of the old ones.

Each cheerleader realizes what a great honor and thrill it is to represent our wonderful school.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We, the graduating class of 1962, wish to extend our sincere thanks to Mr. Robert Vantine of the Delmar Printing Company for his competent assistance in aiding our publication of the 1962 Long Pointer.

We are grateful to our many patrons and sponsors, since, without their cooperative spirit, our yearbook would not have been possible.

The members of the class of 1962 wish to express their deepest gratitude to Miss Kathleen Medeiros and Mrs. Phebe Rogers for their devotion to the publication of this yearbook. Because of their competent supervision of the business and literary staffs, we have been able to edit a yearbook of this quality.
